Merry Christmas - A Happy New Year

College Choir Gives Xmas Concert

The Annual Christmas Concert at Savannah State College was held on Sunday evening, December 11, in Meldrim Auditorium. This traditional musical event was open to the public.

A special feature of the program was the first public performance of a composition by Harry Perse, choral director of Armstrong College. Mr. Perse invited the choral society to perform his "Christmas Eve Is Here," a modern choral work written last year. In addition to music by the entire choral society, there were special renditions by the male and female glee clubs, soloists, and other instrumentalists.

Dr. Coleridge A. Brathwaite, chairman of the Department of Fine Arts, was the conductor. He was assisted by Miss Minnie Rose James at the piano, and Mr. James H. Everett at the organ.

Religious Emphasis Week Program

The Religious Emphasis Week Committee met and selected March 28, through April 1 as Religious Emphasis Week for this school year. Leah Melver was selected chairman of the Religious Emphasis Week Committee and Miss Ida Lee is the secretary.

During the week there will be communion, sunrise service, retreat, assemblies, personal conferences, Sunday School, Vesper, Church, family style breakfasts, and seminars. Committees concerning various aspects of this program will function during this week.

The plan calls for the most regular Religious Emphasis Week ever, with a great many additional participants over the previous years.

Leadership Institute Opens January 29

Plans are being made for the 6th Annual Leadership Institute. The dates for the Institute are January 29, 1955-February 3, 1956. In past years the Institute has featured seminars on Parliamentary Procedure, discussions based on the place of student organizations on a college campus and the responsibilities of student officers.

Mr. George B. Williams, Jr. is serving as chairman of the Institute. His co-workers are Misses Carolyn Patterson, Betty Davis, Madeline Harrison, and Messrs. Robert Porter, Jr., Prince Wyn, Alphons Smith, Eugene Isaac and J. E. Brooks.

K. Payne.

Home Economies Bazaar

The division of Home Economies had its annual Bazaar on Wednesday, December 7, at Hammond Hall from four to nine p.m. It was rated even better than last year's. Dancing and games were available for everyone's enjoyment.

The foods classes made pies, cakes, and cup-cakes, fried fish, chicken (barbecue), rolls, cookies, ribs, coffee, slaw, potato salad and hot dogs which were sold.

On sale and display from the clothing area was a variety of beautiful aprons, shoe-bags of all sizes, place mat sets, toaster and mixer covers, cosmetics cases, and laundry bags.

A new and adventurous addition was added to the Bazaar: Items were raffled off such as cakes, chickens, hams and five gallons of gasoline.

The proceeds from the sales are to go into the club's treasury, and to send a student representative to the meeting of the American Home Economies Association.

We believe the interest in the Bazaar will continue and each year will grow better and better.

SSC Seeks To Increase Its Services In The Division of Trades and Industries

In an interview prior to leaving for the White House Conference on Education, W. B. Nelson, a member of Georgia's delegation and Division of Trades and Industries at Savannah State College emphasized the fact that the college seeks to increase its services in the Division of Trades and Industries.

The Division of Trades and Industries at Savannah State seeks to aid the college in rendering a greater service to the State of Georgia and the nation as a whole in preparing people in the various phases of industrial work.

The division has the following program in operation to prepare students in marketable skills, technical knowledge and competent and efficient teachers. In the preparation of teachers, a curriculum is offered to train: (a) Industrial Arts Teachers; (b) Teachers of General Shop; (c) Vocational Trade Teachers; and (d) Building and Construction Teachers.

Students are trained to acquire marketable skills and technical knowledge, to enter employment as semi-skilled or skilled workers in the following trades:

1. Automobile Mechanics (a) Cabinetmaking (b) Body and Fender; 2. General Woodwork and Carpentry (a) Cabinetmaking (b) Carpentry, repairs, construction; 3. Electrical Maintenance (a) Commercial Wiring

- (b) House Wiring (c) Electrical Appliances (d) Electrical Motor Repairing and Installation; 4. Radio Service and Repair; (a) Bricklaying (b) Cement Finishing (c) Plastering (d) Tile Setting; 5. Practical Nursing; 6. Shoe Repairing and Leathercraft; 10. Drawing (a) Mechanical (b) Architectural.

The division is expanding its program to train engineering technicians. That is, a person who can carry out in a responsible manner either proven techniques which are common knowledge among those who are technical experts in his branch of engineering. The person is trained to work on designs, to engage in draftsmanship; estimating, servicing, the testing of materials et cetera.

Curricula will be offered in the following technical fields:

- a. Electrical and Electronics Technology.
- b. Automotive Technology.
- c. Heating and Refrigeration and Air Conditioning Technology.
- e. Mechanical Technology.

Okwiry Speaks To College

Mr. Isaka Okwiry, District Officer of Kisumu, Kenya, East Africa, and participant in the Foreign Leader Program of the International Education Exchange Service of the United States Department of State, spoke to the Savannah State College family last week.

Mr. Okwiry stated that his main reasons for coming to the United States were (1) "to create a relationship between people of America and East Africa," (2) "to see how the education set-up is going, and also to try and secure a place for one or two boys who are willing to come for education," (3) "to see the extension services and good farmers of America."

He brought out several important facts about Kenya, East Africa, which covers 225,000 miles and has a population of six million people, pointing out that Kenya is governed by a governor appointed by the Queen of England and all other officers are appointed by a Council Officer in England.

The country is divided into six provinces and each province is governed by the Provincial Commissioner. Each Province is divided into four Districts looked after by the District Commissioners. Each District is divided into four parts ruled by the District Officers. Mr. Okwiry is the first African to be appointed as District Officer.

There are no college in East Africa, but there are schools that go as high as twelfth grade.

Y.M.C.A. Records Largest Membership

There are 102 active members in the Savannah State Chapter of the YMCA this year. This is the largest enrollment in the history of the college "Y".

The YMCA will have a traveling basketball team this year. Willie J. Teifair is the director of activities for the YMCA. Isiah Melver is head coach and Odel Weaver Assistant Coach.

The YMCA and YWCA selected Isiah Melver treasurer to represent them in the Ecumenical Student Conference of the Christian World Mission which will be held at Ohio University in Athens, Ohio, beginning December 27 and ending January 2.

There will be thousands of students from all parts of the globe who will sing folk songs of their countries, teach folk songs, demonstrate folk and classical dances, play musical instruments, sing hymns, write poetry, exhibit paintings, write for the conference newspaper and participate in many other activities while attending this conference at Ohio University.

Peace On Earth, Good Will To All Men

By Louis Hill Pratt, '53

One thousand nine hundred and fifty-five years ago, the curiously well-known Bible passage "Peace on earth, good will to all men" originated.

In those days, men respected this idea. They felt that the love of God and His son, Jesus, should be spread throughout the entire earth. They knew that this was the only way to have peace and good will to all men.

So let us go back to the time of the origin of these famous words. Universal understanding and knowledge were low, in comparison to our present day achievements.

The gold, frankincense and myrrh-bearing shepherds were illiterate men. They knew only the love of God and the goodwill of their fellow men. These men used their knowledge to spread peace and goodwill. Surely they gained favor in the sight of God.

But what has happened to the peace and goodwill of old? What has become of the love of God which manifested itself in the humble shepherds who brought their gifts to the Christ-Child?

The truth of the matter is that increased knowledge has so modified our society that we cannot realize our dependence upon Almighty God.

Twenty-eight Students Honored At Honors Day Program

Only two students were initiated into Beta Kappa Chi this year. However, twenty-eight other students were honored on Honors Day because they had earned an average of "B" or above during three quarters last school term. The two students who are being initiated into Beta Kappa Chi are: Mariene McCall and William O. Mitchell. The twenty-eight students who earned an average of "B" or better during last school term are: John W. Arnold, Malsena Armstrong, Chris-

We cannot practice good-will toward our neighbors because we are too busy segregating and discriminating against our fellow-men in our selfish quest for the recognition of society.

"Peace on earth, good-will to all men" has been changed! It is entirely too broad in our present day. The advection now is "Peace on earth against our fellow-men of my own selfish desires and peace to all men of good-will, if they are of a particular race, creed or color."

With this in mind, we have not retained the true value of this idea. We repeat the words at this season of the year; yet they are only words. We don't realize and appreciate the true meaning of them.

We should stop for a moment from our busy schedules, to think on this idea. Then, we would find no time to segregate—none to discriminate against our fellow-men. We would find war and bloodshed out of place in our modern society, and our world of today would be one of universal understanding and lasting peace and good-will to all.

Since we wish for a most happy and enjoyable Yuletide Season to all members of the SAVANNAH STATE COLLEGE FAMILY, we wish with hopes for a prosperous nineteen hundred and fifty-six.

The Things Love Is

Oh, love is such a funny thing,
It makes you laugh, shout and sing.
The hour it comes your cares and troubles
Are gone like bubble bubbles.
Oh, love is such a common thing.
The haggard man, the proudest king,
Fall into love's sweet magic sway
And beg to stay.
Oh, love is such a magic thing,
You're very heart and soul take wing,
You rise and soar on clouds of bliss
At every kiss.
And love's a fragile, sacred thing,
So let it to your bosom cling,
Heaven's below and not above,
When you're in love.

Because He Lived So Long Ago

Because he lived so long ago
And made so straight the way;
Because of that, and only that,
Is why I live today.
Because God was so generous
In giving his son to be Mocked, hanged, and despised
Of men
That we too might be free.
Because Christ was born of Mary
So humbly at the Inn,
Not in rich attire but of low estate
That the poor too might know him.

Because he disputed lawyers and doctors
When he was only twelve years old

Who thought they had the "know how"
But couldn't cure a sin-sick soul,
Yes Jesus lived long ago
And today he is living still Heres within the hearts of Those who obey him and keep his will.

This is an age in which men seldom sit in conference and accomplish a peaceful settlement or come to an agreement that would be in accord with the majority of the peoples involved. Rather than to enter these conferences with open minds, more than often the conferees enter into conferences with set opinions, and prepared statement to demand rather than ask. They seem unwilling to respect the rights and opinions of others and oftentimes are not expressing the desire of the nation's people.

A most glaring example of this is the most recent Geneva conference. Both the East and the West had prepared agendas that did not agree on one single point. The West refused to give in to the East and the East meanwhile rather than attempt a compromise gave its plan for a unified Germany, disarmament, and improvement of East and Western relationship. As a result nothing was accomplished.

However, at a later meeting Molotov and Dulles agreed on the admission of seventeen nations to the United Nations, four of which are Communist. This agreement in which Britain and France concurred would break

Message from the President

A few years ago psychologists and students of human behavior were searching to find how early individuals began certain activities. In studies of infants and early childhood, they found that most of the basic behavior processes existed or could be easily acquired. There is no longer any question concerning the thinking abilities of children and adolescents. Just as those studies have thrown light on thinking so other studies have indicated that characteristics of good citizens appear early in life and show progressive development as one exercises them.

In our colleges there are several million young men and women who are developing citizenship qualities. In some colleges much growth takes place in this area because the students participate in the major community activities, and they exercise governmental functions necessary to provide for the welfare of the school community. The student body arranges to set up regulations which will promote the welfare of students and the institution. Provision is also made for the collection of funds which will be needed to support the activities desired. In addition, provision is made for participation in the drives and campaigns for funds sponsored by organizations like the American Red Cross, American Cancer Society, Folio Drive, American Heart Association, World Student Fund, Tuberculosis Association, and the local community chest. It is desirable that students should contribute directly from their own resources some money toward the running of the institutions that this aspect of participation, when started in elementary and high school, can reach near adult proportions by the time the student reaches college. Every student should evaluate his education in terms of citizenship objectives as well as in regard to academic goals.

Honors Day

During the past school year of 1954-55 twenty-seven students of Savannah State College have used their time wisely to the best of their abilities and by doing so, have been able to earn an average of "B" or higher during the three quarters.

These twenty-seven students were given special recognition during an Honors Day program which was held on Thursday, December 8 at 12 o'clock noon, in Melvind Auditorium. Dr. Marian R. Myles, head of the Biology Department at Port Valley State College, was guest speaker.

Two students who had excelled in biology, chemistry and mathematics received membership into Beta Kappa Chi, National Honorary Scientific Society. They earned a minimum of 26 hours in one field of Science with a 2.00 average or above, and had maintained a 2.00 average or above in all other courses.

Our hats are off to you who were honored. We are hoping that you will be even more successful this term and that many of the other students will get hold of themselves and start exploring the various areas of knowledge and using their precious hours to their advantage.

PRESIDENT AND MRS. W. K. PAYNE CHAT WITH MR. ISAKA OSKWIRY during open house at the library. Mr. Oskwiry is the first African to be nominated to the official bench of the Kenya Legislative Council. SSC Tops Clafin In Homecoming Tie

The Savannah State Tigers took complete charge to hand the Clafin Panthers a 19-6 defeat before hundreds of Alumni and Students at the Annual Homecoming game which was played on the Athletic Field at Savannah State College.

Savannah State scored touchdowns in the first, second and third quarters. Charles Cozart scored the first touchdown, Roland James had 45 yards for the second, and Willie Batchelor scored the third.

Charles Cameron recovered a Clafin fumble on the Panther's 45 yard line and Charles Cozart passed to halfback Joseph Reynolds for 30 yards. On the next play, Charles Cozart raced around left end for the TD. The kick for the extra point was blocked.

In the second quarter, Roland James showed the spectators that he could call plays AND run the ball. After Clafin threatened to score in the second quarter by four successive drives which gave Clafin possession of the ball on the Tigers' 15 yard line, James intercepted a pass from QB Frank Lowery and raced 95 yards for Savannah State's second TD. The try for the extra point failed.

Halfbacks Joseph Reynolds, Willie Batchelor, Charles Cozart, and James King drove to the Panther's 15 yard line after receiving a kick from the Panthers. Batchelor then took a handoff from QB James and drove into the end zone for the Tigers' third TD.

Clafin scored its only touchdown in the final minutes of the fourth quarter. The touchdown came after Clafin's end Robert Hubbard blocked a Moses kick on Savannah State's 22 yard line. Frank Lowery passed to Joseph Washington on the Tigers' 12 yard line. Panther QB Lowery passed again in the end zone for the TD. The kick for the extra point was blocked.

SSC Tigers Hold Banquet

The varsity football team of Savannah State College held its annual Banquet November 30, at the College Corner Shop.

Twenty-one varsity players were present at the affair with their guests. The Tigers who attended were: James Collier, Charles Cozart, William Johnson, Captain E. Z. McDaniel, Gardner Hobbs, Daniel (Gabby) Barns, Roland James, Charles Cameron, Ulysses Stanley, Robin Roberts, Roland James, Jesse Carter, Jesse Middleton, Joseph Reynolds, Willie Reynolds, Willie Batchelor, Frank Chappel, Eddie Mesley, Arnold Johnson, Moses King, Louis Ford, L. J. McDaniel, Oliver Myles, Eugene Hubbard, Joseph Cox, Freddie Edwards, Harrison Whipple, and other members of the team.

The visiting coaches were Joe Trumer and his assistant, Coach Jackson. B. J. James represented the alumni. Captain McDaniel made a short speech that was followed by short speeches from the other representatives who wished the Tigers success in 1956.

After the speeches, dinner was served and the group was entertained by music from the one-piece All-Star Band (the jukebox).

The Speeder's Song
The Xavier University News recently printed this advice especially for people with a heavy foot on the gas pedal. It's entitled "Sing While You Drive."
At 45 miles per hour, sing:
"Highways are happy ways."
At 55 miles per hour, sing:
"I'm but a stranger here."
At 65 miles per hour, sing:
"Nearer my God, to Thee."
At 75 miles per hour, sing:
"When the roll is called up yonder, I'll be there."
At 85 miles per hour, sing:
"Lord, I'm coming home."

Where Does the Time Go?
A study recently completed by the Department of Student Life at Douglas College gave the answer to how students spend their time. It was estimated that the "average undergraduate devotes a forty hour week to academic pursuits, including sixteen hours, forty minutes in attending classes and twenty-six hours, twenty-two minutes in class preparation."

According to France's law, the Cabinet after being advised by the President, could vote to dissolve the Assembly. The Cabinet dissolved the Assembly and voting for a new National Assembly will take place January second.

Premier Faure launched his campaign on a platform calling for a more stable government. He is also asking that the system be changed so that the dissolution of the Assembly would be automatic provided a minority is upset before it has lasted two years.

Pointers To Gift-Givers

James U. McIver

Well, guys and dolls, Christmas is just a few days away. I assume that the major thought which is pacing through your minds is "What am I going to give that 'dream' of mine as a Christmas gift?"

Among the many gifts that may be exchanged are: books, musical recordings, candy, flowers, pens, stationery, photos, et cetera. An embarrassing situation will occur if you distribute the same photo of yourself to friends of your loved one.

Gifts for members of the family should be presented informally. One should have little or no trouble deciding what type of gifts to purchase for members of the family, especially if you have spent most of your life with them.

When you receive a gift in a person-to-person manner, one should not hesitate to open the gift immediately, and show warm and sincere expressions of appreciation and thanks.

If it is sent by mail, one or two days after receiving a gift, one should send the donor a letter of thanks.

The true spirit of giving really should be, "To bestow freely without hope of a return." I assume that it is inevitable for anyone not to give at least one gift to someone for Christmas. Remember the saying, "It is better to give than to receive," and make your Christmas a significant and an enjoyable one.

Football Season A Success

The Savannah State College Tigers have witnessed one of their most successful football seasons in many years. The scores for the 1955 season were: Bethune Cookman 43, S.S.C. 22; Florida Normal 14, S.S.C. 22; Morris College 12, S.S.C. 6; Albany State College 23, S.S.C. 6; Palmyr College 0, S.S.C. 0.

The Tigers won their homecoming game by defeating Clafin 16-6. It had been five years since they had won a homecoming game.

Next season should be an even better one for the Tigers with the return of those hard hitting freshmen, and many of the other teammates. The excellent coaching staff that's working with Coach Ross Penley should make the 1956 Tigers team the best that has ever performed on the S.S.C. gridiron.

How One Man Sees Alumni
The Herald published at Westminster College has a columnist named Dean English and recently he ran this bit about alumni:

A great deal of alumni enthusiasm for their college is "just nice, vain and possessive," says Sydney J. Harris, Chicago News sports columnist in the new volume of the Cultur-to-College handbook. Harris indicates that such alumni are "not really loyal to their alma mater" but simply want a winning team to bolster their own self idea "pressure," he says, is "a bleak reflection of the kind of education they received there, since the highest function of education is to instill a sense of value into students.

Book Week Assembly

"Let's Read More" was the theme of the Book Week Program presented in McClinton Auditorium on Thursday, November 17, 1955 at 12 o'clock noon.

The program included the prelude, announcements, a hymn by the audience; scripture, Mary Pearson; prayer; Marian Butler; the oration, Patricia Bass; the play, Powell School; comments, President W. K. Payne; the Alma Mater, audience; and the postlude.

With the title "Wonders of Story Book Land", students of Powell School presented a very stimulating play.

The costumes and properties represented characters and scenes in a book.

In the last row, Dolores Huskins, Phillip Dryer, Joan Wright, Arthur Bennett, James Carter, William Isner, Gerald Stephens, Cleopatra Isner, Randolph Grant, Abraham Bryant, Lavine Williams, Betty Jackson, Ann Scott, James Thacker, Margaret Thomas, Dianne Pugh, and Charles Savage.

Stage settings were supervised by Miss Althea Williams, and Carter Peck, Savannah State College.

Ushers were Allen Murray, Dorothy Mixwell, Danette Hardesty and Lena Robinson.

The staff of Powell School includes Miss Loreta McFarland, play director; Mrs. Dorothy Hamilton, principal; Mrs. Kidora Marks, Mrs. Minnie Wallace and Mrs. Ruth Duffin.

Organization Highlights

PHI BETA SIGMA NEWS

Gamma Zeta Chapter of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity has been reinstated on Savannah State's Campus.

Its first activity was a rush party in the college center on October 25, 1955, given jointly with the undergraduate chapter of Zeta Phi Beta.

The men that you see wearing crests in their lapels are members of the Crescent Club, Phi Beta Sigma's Pledge Group. You may look forward to seeing Phi Beta Sigma probates during the Spring Probation Period. George J. Faison is the president of this pledge group and Mr. Blanton E. Black is the advisor.

CAMPUS 4-H CLUB

The Campus 4-H Club was organized in 1953. Officially, it did not begin to function until the spring of 1955.

The enrollment has increased to twenty. This number consists mostly of former members of 4-H Clubs from different counties.

Four girls are representing Chatham County at the 4-H Congress in Dublin, Georgia. They are Gloria Moultrie, Josephine Grant, Earlene Gouse and Janie Bell Ferguson of the Campus 4-H Club. These girls will appear in a dress revue. They have done outstanding work in the clothing project, and have made most of their wearing apparel too. They have earned money by sewing for others.

Mr. Whitley from the Tuberculosis Center will be the guest speaker at the December 30, 1955 meeting of the Campus 4-H Club.

ALPHA PHI ALPHA NEWS

The brothers of Delta Eta Chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity welcome Brother Tommy Johnson, Peter J. Baker, Isaiah McIver, James Johnson and Gerue Fork, into the fold of Alphanthos. These brothers came across the burning sands in their most recent initiation.

We also welcome the new little brothers: James Nevels, President; Alexander Gardner, Vice President; Johnny Gilbert, Secretary; Richard Moore, Treasurer; Reubin Cooper, Chaplain; Julius Smith, Sergeant-at-Arms; Matthew McMillan; Eugene Hubbard; Lincoln Arnold and Lorenzo Griffin.

Fashions

The Fashions that are being worn on the campus both by the young men and the young women are very charming.

In this issue I am going to give the young men and the young ladies a few high points that will aid them in perfecting their dress for formal and semi-formal affairs. For dances, the following styles are very appropriate: the beautiful ballarina length gowns, the low-cut dresses with the V or the U, and long party dresses with the square necklines.

Now, to the young men, your charcoal black, gray and brown plus the other shades with accessories to match are real gone this season.

The young ladies are wearing Bermudas with suspenders and socks to match when they step out in their sports outfits.

Here are some glamor tips for the young ladies:

1. Select clothes that will bring out the shade of your eyes.
2. Get out of the habit of walking with your head down.
3. Always wear a smile because it brings out your charm and beauty.
4. Don't wear bright red finger nail polish on your dates. The natural shade is preferred.
5. If you smoke, use nicotine remover to remove nicotine stains from your fingers.
6. If you have halitosis, get some type of drug which is recommended for unpleasant breath.

I am sure that all of the young men and the young ladies are going to be very courteous and kind toward their fellowmen. This is the prerequisite to being popular and charming. So long now until January.

The Machines March On

A coin-operated drunkometer with which a person can give himself an intoxication test is a future possibility according to Dr. Henry Newman of Stanford University. After a cocktail party a person could deposit a coin in a slot, breathe into a bag and out would come a slip showing the amount of alcohol in the blood. Then he is supposed to decide whether he should drive or be driven home.

over some employer's eyes.
SORORITY: A male student's idea of heaven.

UPPERCLASSMEN: Students who are a shining example for freshmen . . . shining because they are all either bright, lit up or polishing the apple.

ATTRACTIVE SENIOR POSES for the cameraman, Miss Dorothy Moore, Business major, English minor from Augusta, Ga.

MISS GLORIA GAMBLE, Sophomore, from Savannah, Ga.; majoring in business administration, does not stop her game of tennis even for a moment to pose for cameraman. Her hobbies are dancing, singing, and sports.

It's All a Matter of Definition
A recent issue of the Oklahoma Daily listed these collegiate definitions:

COLLEGE: A mental institution.

DIPLOMA: A sheepskin that a graduate uses to pull the wool

Collegiate Counsellors

Install Officers
The Collegiate Counsellors met at the College Center on Tuesday, November 29 at 7.30 p.m. to install new officers for 1955-56.
The highlight of the evening was an address given by Miss Ann Jordan, Dean of Women. She spoke concerning the qualities of a good student assistant. Miss Jordan stressed the different area of student counselling. Some of these areas were: Individual teaching, short conferences, advising, social and vocational counselling, therapy, skill remediation, and high-level skill instruction. She emphasized the skills needed for these areas and also the need for growth in maturity.

The officers were installed by Dr. Brooks who stressed the importance of each office.

Census of U. S.

Over 9,000 U. S. students studied abroad during 1954-55, according to the preliminary report released recently as a result of a survey taken by the Institute of International Education, 1 East 87 Street, New York City.

Initial returns from the first statistical report on American students abroad indicate that 9,262 U. S. citizens studied in 47 foreign countries and political areas during the past academic year. The survey was limited to students having both U. S. citizenship and permanent residence in the United States.

The Institute's survey, first undertaken as a pilot project in 1953, was conducted by means of a questionnaire sent to 1,000 institutions of higher education in 15 foreign countries and political areas. Replies have been received from:

To stimulate, motivate, develop, expand and promote interest in the various phases of this work among students and teachers throughout the State of Georgia, several activities are conducted here at the college each year.

The State Trade Contest for high school students is conducted each year for boys in this activity. The number of participants has increased from 25 to 75. Trophies and certificates are awarded to the first place winner and then each team is sent to represent the whole State at a National Contest. Georgia contestants won six National first place trophies out of ten awards during the contest for 1955. The 1955 contest was held at Arkansas A & M College.

The other annual activity is a trade conference for co-ordinators of TACT programs and Vocational Trade Teachers. Also short courses of three week duration are held each summer for State Trade teachers, all of this is for the purpose of improving instruction among shop teachers in the State of Georgia. Experts from other states are called in to assist in this program.

Thus through these services the division at the college is aiding in the promotion of a good educational program for Georgia.

Mr. Prince Jackson Jr., Alumni Secretary of the college requests that any alumnae or alumnae who is not getting any regular correspondence from the college, contact the Office of Public Relations of Savannah State College immediately and have the necessary information.

Okwiry Speaks

The children of East Africa start to school at the age of just as they do in America, but they have standards instead of grades. A high school graduate is equivalent to a two-year college student here in America. After finishing high school in East Africa, the student takes the Cambridge School Certificate an examination which qualifies him to enter any university in the world.

Mr. Okwiry stated: "I am really grateful to the United States Government for having given me this golden opportunity of touring America to see their Extension Services and the progress the American people are making."

Mr. Okwiry has been in the United States since September 6 and will be here until December 11. He was educated in East Africa and has taken a course in Administration in England.

ceived from a total of 636 institutions or 82.6 per cent of those polled: 379 institutions reported; 9,262 U. S. students enrolled; 467 reported no U. S. students. A final report on U. S. students abroad will be included in the 1956 Open Doors, the Institute's annual census report on foreign students, scholars and doctors in the U. S.

Where did the American students study? Almost 50 per cent (5,501) of those reported were enrolled in European schools; 15 per cent were in Mexico; and 14 per cent in Canada. Four countries reported over 1,000 U. S. citizens in their institutions of higher education: Mexico, 1,205; Canada, 1,374; Italy, 1,061, and the United Kingdom, 1,000.

European countries, in addition to Italy and the United Kingdom, where over 100 U. S. students enrolled were: Germany, 834; France, 805; Switzerland, 759; the Netherlands, 200; Spain, 165; Austria, 156; and Belgium, 134.

There were 625 students in the Far East, 491 of these in the Philippines and 112 in Japan. The Near East received 141—81 in Israel and 64 in Lebanon. In the Western Hemisphere, in addition to Mexico and Canada, there were 51 students enrolled in Caribbean countries and 166 in South America. Of this last number, 83 went to Peru.

There were 31 students in Africa: 18 in Egypt and 9 in the Union of South Africa. Oceania received 85 students—46 in Australia and 19 in New Zealand.

What subjects did the U. S. students study abroad? Of the first 8,219 students reported, 75.2 per cent pursued studies in six academic fields: liberal arts, 1,973; medicine, 1,718; theology, 764; social sciences, 753; creative arts, 477; and natural and physical sciences, 415. There was no answer as to field for 1,735 students, or 20.9 per cent of the first 8,219 reported.

Other subjects studied abroad were: business administration, 151; engineering, 105; education, 59; and agriculture, 21. There were 48 students in all other fields.

Two Millionth Volume

The Berkeley campus of the University of California has acquired its two-millionth volume, a valuable Shakespeare First Folio, date London, 1623. Authorities say the book is one of the monuments of western culture. The University of California is now the sixth largest in the United States.

One View of a College Education
The overemphasis—sometimes placed on the "rah, rah" side of collegiate life drew this sarcastic bit of writing from Sam Chapman, columnist for West Virginia University's Daily Athenaeum:

"What do most people go to college for in the first place? Four years of "college life" of course, and the old "rah, rah, rah!" Some students want to learn a little something on the side, but this is only secondary. With this in mind, it seems quite logical that observance of freshman rules should play a large part in participation in honors. Someone who misses pep rallies for such a silly reason as studying for an exam, someone who neglects to wear a beanie, or someone who doesn't happen to like football, should be by all means be excluded from honors. We should honor those who quote the "Alma Mater" and "We Want a Touchdown" to enthusiastic perfection.

It is time for the old fogies to realize that this is not an age of books and learning. This is the age of mass production sports and enforced freshman rules.

Twenty Year Record

The longest consecutive string of All-American yearbooks in the nation remained unbroken this year with the announcement that the 1955 Royal Purple of Kansas State College has been awarded another All-American rating by the Associated Collegiate Press. It's the 20th year in a row that the Royal Purple has been rated among the country's top yearbooks.

Cuspidors, Anyone?

There are all kinds and shapes of athletic contests, but it looks as if the East Texas State Teachers has come up with one to top them all. They've got a junior down there named John Chapel, who for two consecutive years has won tobacco spitting contests.

John won the contest two years ago by expelling a stream of juice 23 feet. A year later he defended his title with a spat of 21 feet, 3 inches. The loss of distance the second time was due to a strong wind.

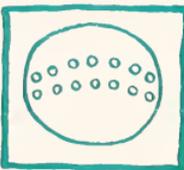

Now he's going after the title for the third year in a row. This is the sort of thing the American Tobacco company might get hold of and really exploit.

What Price Parking?

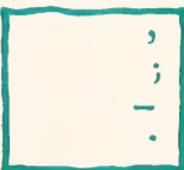

Proof of just how valuable campus parking space is was shown clearly at Los Angeles City College. As first prize in a clean-up slogan contest, the Dean of Student personnel gave up his reserved parking space to the winner for the entire semester.
