Open House at New Dormitory

By George Johnson

The new Men's Dormitory was opened to the faculty and the students on Sunday, January 23.

Guides met the guests in the lobby and took them through the building, showing the various parts and features of the building. In several of the rooms there were residents to welcome the visitors to their respective "home."

The visitors saw upon entering the building, a large lounge equipped with modern furniture. The directors' apartment consisted of a sitting room, decoration with the same type furniture as the main lounge, a bedroom, and modern kitchenette.

Alston Speaks in Seminar

Through the kindness of Mr. Robert C. Long, Sr., of the Business Department, the Leadership Institute Committee was able to secure the services of Mr. Wendell H. Alston, Public Relations representative of the Standard Oil Company. Mr. Alston spoke during one of the Social Education hours at the College Center, Wednesday, January 19. He spoke on the subject "Leadership Opportunities in Business."

Mr. Alston was well equipped with a wealth of information that was of interest to the students in the business department and any others who might not intend to teach. He very carefully explained how opportunities for Negroes are opening up in businesses that formerly employed no Negroes. If these new possibilities exist, they can begin preparing themselves for such vocations.

Religious Emphasis Week Feb. 27

By Barbara Brunson

Plans for Religious Emphasis Week, which will be observed February 27-March 3, have been made. The speaker chosen for the week is Dr. William James Simmons of Tennessee State College, who will speak from the general theme, "An Unchanging God in a Changing World."

The chairman and workers of all sub-committees have met and submitted plans to the executive committee. A Better-Week Committee was named this year to make suggestions to improve the general program.

The members of the executive committee are James Dearling, general chairman; Barbara Brunson, executive secretary; William B. Nelson, chairmen of theme committee; and Howard A. J. Hargrett, adviser.

The committee will appreciate the cooperation of the entire student body in making this an interesting and beneficial week for everyone.

MISS MARY HERD

Miss Mary Herd, M. Ed., has been appointed director of the reading clinic at Savannah State College. It was announced by President W. K. Payne. She replaces Mrs. Juanita Sellers Stone, whose resignation became effective at the end of the fall quarter.

Miss Herd holds the A.B. degree from Knoxville College, and the M. Ed. degree from the University of Southern California, where she has continued her study toward the doctorate. Prior to coming to Savannah State, Miss Herd was instructor at the Gompers High School, Los Angeles, Calif. Miss Herd is the editor and publisher of Expression, a literary magazine issued monthly.

Job Placement Clinic Was Held By Personnel

By George Johnson

The department of student personnel services presented a job placement clinic for the students at Savannah State College in Meidrim Hall from January 7-13. The activities of the clinic included: a job placement conference for seniors, a display of job possibilities, and an address on job opportunities in general assembly.

The first session on Saturday morning was open to seniors. It included two general sessions and a seminar, featuring three groups: business, education, and trades and industries.

In the first general session a panel discussion, "Competencies and Behavior Employees Expect of Employers", was presented by Mr. Sidney A. Jones, a business man of Savannah; Mr. W. W. McCune, assistant superintendent of public schools and director of teacher-employment in Savannah; Mr. W. B. Nelson, director of the division of trades and industries at the College; and Mrs. Sophronia Tompkins, principal of Woodville High School in Savannah. Dr. C. L. Kiah, chairman of the department of education, served as coordinator.

In the seminars, the students were told of the possible job opportunities in their respective areas and the methods of securing these positions. Dr. C. L. Kiah served as chairman of the education seminar, Mr. Robert C. Long, chairman of the business seminar, and Mr. W. B. Nelson, chairman of the trades and industries seminar.

After a coffee break, another general session was held at which time Mrs. Donella Scarborough and Mr. Leonard Law served as leaders of a discussion

Eighth Annual Leadership Institute Held January 16

The Eighth Annual Leadership Institute began Sunday morning, January 16, with the sermon given by Reverend L. S. Stell, Pastor of Bethlehem Baptist Church. Rev. Stell spoke from the subject "In the Name of Sense". He admonished his listeners to always make their choices intelligent ones. Never make a decision without carefully weighing all the facts. When one is about to take on an obligation, he should first count the cost before he unwittingly takes on the responsibility. Our leaders will not be successful in their respective fields unless they assume this attitude.

The music for the church service was rendered by the Girls' Glee Club of Cuyler Junior High School, under the direction of Miss Jane Parker. They sang "The Star" by Rogers and Schubert's "Ave Maria."

The speaker for the Vesper service was the Reverend Percel O. Alston, Pastor of the Midway Congregational Church and Director of the Dorchester Community Cooperative. Rev. Alston selected as his subject "What Time Is It?" He explained that he did not mean what hour of the day or what day of the week. But in a deeper or broader sense he wanted to know what time is it? There may be some people in the world who would say it is time to live for the moment only, to crowd as much fun as is possible into every day. There are others who say it is time to make money, to enjoy the dollars, and which has any meaning in our present way of life. The speaker was of the opinion that anyone who took this viewpoint has a very limited range of vision. Rather, he would think that this is a time for service to humanity. And this service presupposes adequate preparation. The crying need of our age is not the need of good doctors, and good lawyers, but we need good men and good women who will become good doctors and good lawyers.

The Savannah State College Choral Society, under the direction of Dr. Lloyd used the corresponding of the very beautiful "God Be in My Head," by Grant-Schafer.

At the All-College Assemblies two panels were presented. Tuesday, January 18, Dean W. J. Holloway co-ordinated the panel: "The Advisor and Student Organizations." The participants were Mrs. Ella W. Fisher, Mrs. Louise Owens, Homer Bryson and Dr. B. T. Griffith. Thursday, January 20, Mr. Curtis Cooper, President of the Student Council, was co-ordinator for the panel: "Responsibilities of Leaders at Savannah State College." The panel was very ably assisted by three members of the Council - Miss Nadine Cooper, Mr. William Horton, Miss Peola Wright and Mr. John Clemmens, one of the advisors.

Better Leadership For a Better World; Theme

One of the main highlights of the Leadership Institute was the repeated emphasis on Parliamentary Procedure. The Committee felt that this information is always needed by everyone and too much emphasis cannot be placed upon it. The Freshman and Sophomore Orientation classes had "guest professors" this week. These professors were invited to lecture to each class for one class period during the week. The lecturers were Mr. Bertrand, Mr. Black, Mr. Clay, Mr. Davis, Mr. E. Dean, Mr. W. E. Griffin, Mr. Leffack, Dean Meyers, Mr. Peacock, Dr. E. K. Williams and Mr. Robert Long, Sr.

At the social education hour Monday afternoon, January 17, at 2:30 p.m., Dr. R. Grann Lloyd was guest speaker at the general seminar on parliamentary procedure. Dr. Lloyd used the very effective approach of dealing with the many misconceptions one may have about parliamentary procedure. The misconceptions were concerned with the custom of the Chairman's not voting, the usual custom of accepting of the treasurer's report and the ruling of the correspondence, committee reports, the withdrawing of a motion, the kind of motions which do not require a second. Time was allowed for a question period and the students responded quite eagerly.

Organization Highlights

THE MEN BEHIND THE SHIELD By Homer Bryson

The Alpha Gamma Chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, though small in number, is ever pushing forward.

The brothers have returned to school with renewed vigor and are at present making plans for the annual Mardi Gras dance, which will be held in Wilcox Gymnasium on February 5, 1955. This year, as in years past, it promises to be one of the gala events of the season.

Seven members of the Chapter are scheduled to receive their degrees in June, however, valuable replacements are expected from the pledge club.

Persistence, Manhood, Scholarship, and Uplift: by these fruits you shall know them.

With great enthusiasm that the brothers are working with their respective parts for our dramatic production with the sisters, the AKA's.

KAPPA ALPHA FSI

We, the brothers of Gamma Chi Chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi, take pleasure in welcoming into our midst Brothers Russell Mole and William O. Mitchell. Brother Mole is a charter member of our chapter, and we are especially proud to have him. Brother Mole was active having served in the Army.

Brother Camper and Brother Polemarch Thomas motored to Washington, D. C. to represent Gamma Chi chapter at the forty-fourth Grand Conclave of Kappa Alpha Psi. They reported a very successful trip. Reports show that the city of Washington received Kappa Alpha Psi most cordially and literally gave the city to them during their stay. We are grateful to all concerned for such a wonderful affair.

Meanwhile, Brother Polemarch James Thomas was considered honeymooning during the Christmas holidays. He was joined in the holy bands of matrimony with the former Miss Jacquelyn Seward, a 1954 graduate of Savannah State College. While in Washington they resided at the Stater Hotel at 16th and 'K' Streets, N. W. The Brothers received the bride informally the opening of this quarter. The Thomases are now taking residence in Savannah.

Personally Yours

By Evelyn Smalls, '55

Just because the weather is too cold is no reason for us to become careless with our personal cleanliness. Baths are just as important in winter as they are in summer. But baths are not enough. There are other things we can do to keep our perspiration, but there is always more perspiration accumulating. After a bath or shower, a deodorant is a rule no girl can afford to forget. A deodorant antiperspirant checks moisture and gives your pretty new clothes a longer lease on life. In any event, it's a rule no girl can afford to forget. A deodorant protection of underarm shields and frequent cleansing to keep them as fresh as the day you first lifted them out of the issue paper.

Deodorants and deodorant soaps are available everywhere. And they are within the reach of every pocket. The items aren't made just for women. There are lots of products made especially for MEN. And they aren't sissy either. Menmen, Avon, Kings Men, etc. Other companies have wonderful deodorants and after-shave products for men.

Don't neglect your mouth. Brush teeth regularly with a good toothbrush. Toothbrushes are easier to replace than teeth. Brush up and down, not across.

Now that the skin is one of the trend girls, you have to be careful of that figure. Nothing, but nothing, looks worse than a girl in a slim skirt that bulges out from the front and rear! Every girl needs a good foundation garment. There's one to fit every type of figure. Why not consult the expert in the foundation department of your favorite store before you buy? She can help you a lot. You'll feel better and look better, too.

Let's not forget our complexion and hair. It is a wise girl who realizes that complexion includes face and scalp. Soap and water and a complexion brush can bring a glow to that dull complexion. Then there are the liquid-lather cleansers that are good for blackheads. The hair-brush keeps hair and scalp clean and shining. Frequent shampoos are not to be forgotten.

Hands, feet, elbows, and back need extra care. Start with the forementioned daily scrubs. Choose face powder and lipsticks that harmonize with you and your outfit. Take a little extra time to apply make-up for a flattering look. Watch those lip lines with the lipstick. Follow the natural lines of your mouth.

Gologne and perfume make a girl who is sweet and fresh as a blossom smell that way. Several new fragrances are out for fall. Try them on yourself and choose the ones that you like best.

BETTER LEADERSHIP

One suggestion which the committee received after some of these sessions was that the lessons or lectures should be made more advanced for the upper classes.

The Committee prepared a booklet for use in problems concerning organizations, the responsibilities of officers, etc. This list included several books in addition to the standard work, Roberts' Rules of Order. Titles which were very highly recommended were:

Cruzman: Parliamentary Procedure.

Hagarty: How to Run a Meeting.

Andrews: Effective Leadership in Human Relations.

Strauss: New Ways to Better Meetings.
Sturpis: Learning Parliamentary Procedure.
Standard Code of Parliamentary Procedure.

Sports As I See It

By James O'Neal

After the Savannah State Tigers dropped their first two basketball games of the season, Coach Ted Wright shifted his line-up for the next three important games before the holidays. Their opponents were the mighty North Carolina Eagles, who were runners-up in the national tournament; Clark College of Atlanta, who are S.I.A.C. champions; and Benedict College of Columbia, S. C.

In the first of these three games, the Tigers went to North Carolina and upset the favorite. Coach Ted Wright shifted his line-up for the next three important games before the holidays. Their opponents were the mighty North Carolina Eagles, who were runners-up in the national tournament; Clark College of Atlanta, who are S.I.A.C. champions; and Benedict College of Columbia, S. C.

Coach Wright has probably one of the best "little men" in basketball, who is Robert Lewis known around Savannah as "Mr. Basketball." Lewis is a sophomore who stands 5-7; he can do practically anything with a basketball except eat it. He is not the player who puts on a one-up show, but a player who often makes his big opponents look bad. His most effective weapon is his drive-in delay-fake which means two points for the Tigers.

Other star players of the team include such players as Noel Wright, Cecil Williams, Richard Washington, and Otis Brock.

Wright is the kind of player who can play 40 minutes of head-up basketball, and he is at his best under pressure. He is known especially for his long set-shot and his ability to steal balls from his opponents.

Cecil Williams, who stands 6'7", is a senior and an honor student. He comes from Panama and has been the top scorer for the Tigers for the past three years. He is dangerous both in and away from the goal.

Washington is a Junior from New Orleans, a hard worker, and a threat with his jump-shot. Otis Brock is probably one of the most dependable players on the squad. He is a backboard specialist on rebounds and shoots from 15 to 25 points per game with his one-hand jump and his over-head hook.

With this team plus some strong reserves, the Tigers will be working hard to return to the National Tournament again this year. — Will they????

Benedict Loses to Tigers 65-57
Savannah State won their first home game of the season when they defeated Benedict College of Columbia, S. C., 65-57 at Savannah State College on December 14.

Cecil Williams was the "big gun" for Savannah when he hit the net for 23 points, which gave the Tigers a lead of 34-27 at half time. Other top scorers for the Tigers were Brock with 17 points, Wright and Washington with 11 points each.

Smith led Benedict's attack with 15 points followed by White with 12 and Freeman with 11 points.

Tigers Down Clark 81-66
The Savannah State Tigers made it three in a row as they rolled over Clark College of Atlanta 81-66 in Savannah State gymnasium.

The Tigers wasted no time in showing their superiority as they built up an 18-4 lead in the first six minutes of the game. Cecil Williams of Savannah made the first 10 points for the Tigers. The half ended with Savannah State in command with a commanding lead of 42-24.

The scoring honors of the game went to Reginald Threat of Clark and Cecil Williams of Savannah with 27 points each. Other players who hit in the double figures were Richard Washington, Noel Wright, and Otis Brock of Savannah with 15, 16 and 18 points respectively. James Cohen was second highest for Clark with 15 points. Other outstanding players of the game were Warren Rouse and Julius Burns of Clark. The Tigers were led by Robert Lewis and Clevon Johnson.

In the preliminary game, Woodville High defeated Boys' Club of Savannah 45-33. The high scorers of the game were Roland James of Woodville and David Johnson of Boys' Club with 17 and 14 points respectively.

Tigers Drop Clifton 70-51
The Savannah State Tigers rolled over Clifton University 70-51 for their fourth straight victory at Savannah State College.

This was the first conference game for the Tigers. Coach Wright used 15 players in winning the one-sided contest.

The first five played their best offensive game of the season as they built up a 22-8 point lead in the first four minutes of the game. At half time, the Tigers led 42-27.

Noel Wright and Robert Lewis each had 14 points to lead the Tigers' attack. Cecil Williams and Otis Brock each had 10 points for the Tigers. Oscar Mitchell, with 14 points, led the Clifton attack and was followed by Earl Jones with 13 points.

Savannah State's "B" team lost to the Boys' Club, 53-39, in the preliminary game.

LIBRARY NEWS

Black Power is a report by this American Negro novelist on his recent trip to Africa's Gold Coast. An American in India was written by Jay Saunders Redding, Professor of Literature and Creative Writing at Hampton Institute. Mr. Redding was sent to India in 1932 by the Truman administration to present the American way of life to the people of India. His extensive trip included important cities, many university centers and a number of small villages. Era Bell Thompson, an editor of Ebony Magazine, completed Africa, Land of My Fathers. This is an account of the three months which Miss Thompson spent in brevity visiting 18 countries.

On the eve of the recent decision of the Supreme Court of the United States concerning segregation in the public schools, The Negro and the Schools by Harry S. Ashmore was published by the University of North Carolina Press. This book was written without advocating either side of the question. It treats the issue of segregation in the public schools in five communities in South Carolina, Virginia, Kansas, Delaware and the District of Columbia. The volume contains a wealth of information about a vital educational and sociological situation.

Other non-fiction titles which deal with various phases of life of the American Negro are: The Development of Negro Religion by Ruby F. Johnston; Bishop Healy: Beloved Outcast, by Albert Foley; Racial Integrity of the American Negro, by Alexander Shannon. An autobiography of special interest is Tell Freedom by Peter Abrahams. The author describes his childhood and youth in the slums of Johannesburg.

The novels written by or about Negroes during the past year include: The Third Generation, by Chester Himes which treats three generations of a Negro family from their early days of freedom from slavery, through the years of rising to a position of comfort and respectability, to a final degradation and tragedy. Youngblood, by John O. Killens, a native of Macon, Georgia, is a story of a Negro family in Georgia during the early years of the twentieth century. Benton's Row, by Frank Yerby, the story of Tom Benton, bad man of Louisiana, who lets nothing stand in his way of getting what he wants.

of South Africa, spent the winter with Byrd in Antarctica." You do not need to live in a little world; you can live in a vast world, a big world. You make your world what you want.

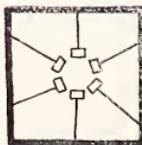

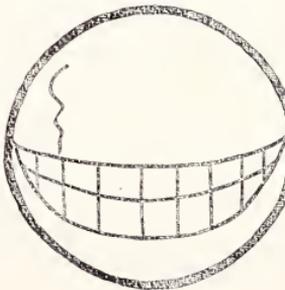

Come, let us spend an evening with Plato, Socrates, or Aristotle, or with Paul or Buddha or with any of the greats. Just open your books and there it is, a world perhaps some of us do not know about but an infinitely rich world in which we can move. How large is our world?

Voting Machine Demonstrated

In an effort to train our students to become better qualified leaders, the committee made provisions for having a demonstration in the use of the voting machine. Mr. William E. Register, City Marshal of Savannah, made this opportunity possible. Many of the students had voted in communities where the machine had been used, but for many others, this was a first experience.

"It's TOASTED" to taste better!

STUDENTS ARE ECSTATIC about Luckies. That's the word, straight from the latest, largest college survey ever. Again, the No. 1 reason Luckies lead in colleges over all other brands, coast to coast—border to border. Luckies taste better. They taste better, first of all, because Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. Then, that tobacco is toasted to taste better. This famous Lucky Strike tones up Luckies' light, good-tasting tobacco to make it taste even better. So be smart, like the student in the Doodle above, titled: Lucky smoker swinging in hammock. Swing to Luckies yourself. Enjoy the better-tasting cigarette... Lucky Strike.

Better taste Luckies... LUCKIES TASTE BETTER... Cleaner, Fresher, Smoother!
