'Religion, Key to Better Living'

Theme of Religious Emphasis Week at SSC

Interesting Highlights of Observance, March 7-11

The theme for Religious Emphasis Week this year is "Religion, Key to Better Living." Keys will appear in the College Corner Shoppe, B. J. James', The College Center and other sections of the campus. Leon Jones is busy setting the keys ready for the Week.

Administrative Officers All Out to Cooperate With Religious Emphasis

All of the administrative officers of Savannah State College have been working with the Religious Emphasis Week Committee to insure a suitable atmosphere for worship and study in religion.

Coach T. A. Wright scheduled his basketball games in such a manner that no games will be played during Religious Emphasis Week and has consistently refused to make any changes that will conflict with The Religious Emphasis Program. Also, Registrar Ben Ingersoll has for two years adjusted pre-registration to the Religious Emphasis Week.

President W. K. Payne has adjusted the faculty meetings to the advantage of Religious Emphasis each year since he has been in office. Dean T. C. Meyers has scheduled final examinations to the advantage of the Religious Emphasis Program this year.

The Choir Will Be in Church for Religious Emphasis Week

Dr. Coleridge Brathwaite has agreed that the college choir will sing for Morning Worship during Religious Emphasis Week. The religious life program for this term has no plans for regular appearances of the choir in Morning Worship.

Retreat to Be Early This Year

The retreat, an outstanding feature of Religious Emphasis Week, will be held early in the morning this year. According to Harold Dunagan, Chairman of the Retreat Committee, it is hoped that the worship service and breakfast can be over in time for the participants to be back on the campus and in class at 8:00 A.M. Students with 8:30 classes and who anticipate going on the retreat should see Rev. A. J. Hargrett on Wednesday.

Popularity of Religious Emphasis Week Program Due to Efforts of Reverend Armstrong

The present popularity of Religious Emphasis Week at Savannah State College is due largely to efforts of a man known by few, if any, of the present students of Savannah State College. It was Reverend Ernest Armstrong, College Minister in 1948-49, who changed the pattern of Religious Emphasis Week observances that has been witnessed by the students and faculty.

In the meantime, Mr. Armstrong applied to the University Christian Missions for a mission. The mission was granted, and during the second year of the college pastorate of Reverend Andrew J. Hargrett, officials from the University Christian Mission came to the campus and enlarged on the pattern initiated by Mr. Armstrong.

It was Lee Mark Daniel, a '53 graduate, who took the week over as a student project and greatly enhanced the administration's respect for the ability of students to engineer such an important activity.

All Social Education Programs to Be Dedicated to Religious Emphasis

According to Nelson Freeman, Assistant Counselor of Men, all of the Social Education Hours will be centered around Religious Emphasis. On Monday, the Sunday School will present a panel discussion, entitled, "Religion, Key to Effective Living." On Tuesday, William Bowen, Director of Audio-Visual Aids, will present a movie entitled "Walking With God." Wednesday's Social Education Hour will be turned over to the guest of the Week for discussion. On Thursday evening at 7:00 P.M., another film entitled "Out of the Night" will be shown.

Mrs. Uphur to Present Verse Speaking Choir

Mrs. Luella Uphur, instructor of Languages and Literature and faculty co-chairman of the assembly committee for the Annual Religious Emphasis Week, has announced that an all male verse-speaking choir will be presented in assembly during the Annual Religious Emphasis Week. Among the members that this group will do will be an original poem by Mrs. Uphur, written especially for Religious Emphasis Week.

Breakfast in Family Style on Sunday Morning

As usual, Mrs. Vernetta Prazier, our dietitian, has announced that on the first day of Religious Emphasis Week, breakfast will be served in family style. All students are requested to be in the dining hall at 8 o'clock and dressed suitably to meet our guest.

The faculty and students will have breakfast together. Miss Elizabeth Jordan will serve as leader of the short devotion on that morning. Miss Louise Koneany is chairman of the Breakfast Committee.

Dr. Faulkner Leaves College Week Dr. William J. Faulkner, Religious Emphasis Week Speaker, for Savannah State College for the term 1952-53, has left Flak University to accept the pastorate of a Congregational Church in Chicago, Illinois.

Dr. Faulkner was Dean of Flak University when he came to Savannah State College.

Business Places to Share in Religious Emphasis Week Spirit

Three commercial businesses and the College Center have promised support of the approaching Religious Emphasis Week for 1953-54 school year.

Frank Thorne, owner of the College Corner Shoppe, and B. J. James, proprietor of B. J. James' Confectionery, have pledged to place keys in their places of business to remind the students of the theme, "Religion, Key to Better Living." Collis Florence has made a similar pledge for the College Center.

The Doctor and God

By S. M. McDew, Jr.,

Physician

In the beginning there was God. To those men and women engaged in the sciences, particularly medicine, there has always been a gap between science and religion.

When God created man, He made him master of all things on the face of the Earth. Through man's ingenuity, skill, and creative ability, we have the telephone, telegraph, radio, television, explosives, A-Bomb, H-bomb, craft, and other inventions and discoveries. Specifically with regard to medicine, we have such aids as anesthesia,

Mr. Carrington holds the A.B. degree from Livingston College, M.A. and B.D. degrees from Oberlin Graduate School, Theology and the S.T.M. degree from Union Theological Seminary, New York. He has had wide experience in the field of religion, having served on the faculties of Livingston College and Howard University. At present, he is pastoring St. Catherine's AMEZ Church of New Rochelle, N. Y.

Why Student Council Supports Religious Emphasis Week

TIMOTHY U. RYALS, President, Student Council

In a world of turmoil, confusion, and doubt, we find a week of meditation very helpful and inspiring. The Student Council realizes and feels that religion plays a significant role in developing the whole individual.

To have faith is something or someone, serves as a stimulus or an urge to help one reach the goals he sets and gives one courage to approach the ultimate goal.

Religion is a belief in God or surgery, penicillin, and varied equipment.

Today, very few ailments and diseases of the human body have not been mastered. Yet, science is unable to exercise control over life and death. Therefore, we recognize an inadequacy in medicine.

We are unable to explain scientifically principles and theories sometimes fall despite all we know and do. As a result, we are forced to accept the belief that a supreme being is omnipotent with regard to mankind and all elements of the universe.

It is the true physician is aware of the need for God's close association in the medical profession. Consequently, in all his undertakings, the doctor evidences a faith in God. Prayer, too, is an essential tool. Faith and prayer can be likened unto a crutch used by a lame man. It is unnecessary to labor the point that we are instruments in His hands. Without Him we can do nothing.

supernatural powers. Christianity is the belief in Christ and his teachings. Most students believe in Christ because he was a good leader, a true friend and kind to everyone. In order for us to be good leaders and be successful, we must also possess the desired qualities—truth, honesty, kindness and the insight to help mankind maintain better social relations.

The Student Council is patiently awaiting the arrival of this Week, and goes out wholeheartedly to support it.

Review of '53

Religious Observance

By Elmer Warren, '55

Dr. William Faulkner was the guest speaker for Religious Emphasis Week of 1953 at Savannah State College. It is felt that Savannah State's future leaders digested the enlightening addresses and speeches made by Dr. Faulkner.

Dr. Faulkner stated that people, especially college students, should be sensitive to the social rights and needs of others. We should have a capacity for independent thinking and critical evaluation.

Improving Our Moral Life

Each year, a week is set aside to emphasize religion. During this week our campus is filled throughout with a religious spirit. Programs based on christianity and fellowship with God and man are presented. These programs serve to enrich our minds and perpetuate our spiritual growth and development.

Even though there is a week set aside solely for the purpose of contemplating religion, it is not a wide idea to try to improve and make all necessary corrections that are needed to be made in one week.

The moral side of life and the social side of life are different; yet they are woven so closely that they cannot be separated. We are living in a "Progressive Age" where ever changing society in order to maintain our balance and equilibrium, we must change along with society. This cannot be done by merely modifying our social characteristics, but our moral characteristics as well.

At this stage of life, we should realize that religion is one of the basic fundamentals of human development. It stimulates our desire to be respectful, it helps us to develop a wholesome outlook on life, and most of all, it helps us to set along with ourselves and with others. It also increases our love for our Alma Mater, in that it gives us a better appreciation of the opportunities here at Savannah State College.

Don't let your interest in improving our moral standards die when religious emphasis week is over. Instead, may it flame up spontaneously, warm the campus atmosphere and burn continuously.

Make Best of What You Have

Nadene Cooper '55
Unfortunately, there are no two people identical. Each individual has individual characteristics or individual differences. It is up to each person to discover the dominant traits that he possesses and develop them to the fullest capacity.

Perhaps you are unable to be a Marion Anderson, but there is a hope for another Mary M. Beuthine. If you cannot be a Dr. Ralph Bunche, then be an Adam Clayton Powell. There are plenty opportunities awaiting you. All of us can be great if we will only realize that people seldom become great from security, but from risk. Most of us have a desire to become great, to reach the top. It must be understood that what we want is at the top of the ladder and can only be obtained by climbing step by step. There must be special efforts to reach the top of anything worthwhile. Advancement and prosperity necessitate work and making the best of what we have.

We should give the world our best and someday the best will return to us.

Reading for Information And Pleasure

Solomon Greene '55
Since the author of any written material may have more experience about his topic than we have, we may never understand his topic as well as he does, but we should understand the written work well enough to make a satisfactory report. Reading for information, obviously, is more important and more difficult to do than reading for pleasure; therefore, one should strive to learn the skill of reading for information first. Furthermore, one should always strive for better speed and better comprehension.

As a prerequisite to good reading, a student should possess a good collegiate dictionary and, other than using it to increase his vocabulary, he should strive to define and pronounce all new words that he encounters. The student should have a critical mind and be able to evaluate readings for what they are worth when reading for information.

Reading is one's ability to understand the point of or depict the thought from a written

ON THE BRICKER AMENDMENT. The Bricker group, instead of the Old Guard and the isolationist wing of the Republican party, is determined to curb the executive power. The plan would give Congress greater powers than it now has in the making of treaties and executive agreements. Senator Bricker says—"the objective is to prevent the United States from joining any world government scheme." I predict if any treaty powers' amendment is approved, Senator Bricker will claim political credit.

ON THE BIG FOUR FOREIGN CONFERENCE. I am forced to believe now that Russia is bent on holding fast to her position in Europe even if at the cost of blocking agreement on Germany. At the same time, she is moving to divide the West by "peaceful overtures" that have varying measures of popular appeal for the Western democracies.

Home Economics 200

Vote April 23 Selective Service Test Applications Now

All eligible students who intend to take the Selective Service College Qualification Test in 1954 should file applications at once for the April 23 administration. Selective Service National Headquarters advised today.

An application and a bulletin of information may be obtained from the Selective Service local board. Following instructions in the bulletin, the student should fill out his application immediately when it is in a special envelope provided. Applications must be postmarked no later than midnight, March 8, 1954. Early filing will be greatly to the student's advantage.

Results will be reported to the student's Selective Service local board of jurisdiction for use in considering his deferment as a student according to Educational Testing Service, which prepares and administers the College Qualification Test.

Unless one knows the meanings of words and sentences that make up the written statement, he cannot understand the true thought of the statement.

Concluding then, a person must know the meaning that each word bears upon a sentence, and the thought that each sentence bears upon the paragraph. He must find the relationship between paragraphs. By effectively exercising great initiative, reading larger units of thought, such as the essays, short stories, newspapers and books, will become more informative. Reading for pleasure, nevertheless, comes naturally. The reader should forget about facts and information and should relax and try to become absorbed in the story. More exactly, the reader should forget about being critical when reading for pleasure.

Creative Tributes

Valentine

Nadene Cooper '55

For years, we have celebrated Valentine without having a clear understanding of its meaning. We have often said "Be My Valentine" without thinking or without actually knowing what these words represent. When an individual says to another "Be My Valentine" the following things are implied:

Be kind-hearted and true.
Eager to share in things that I do.

Meet me half-way, which is right.
Yield, when you are wrong.

Verbalize, it stands for self-expression.
Abstain from nagging, it ruins friendship.

Love with sincerity, it is the best policy.
Elaborate, when there is need for clarification.

Never form conclusions, without sufficient evidence.
Try to understand, understanding is knowledge.

Manners Made Easy

The practice of good manners is an art which can and should be acquired by every college student. It is very important to become aware of the correct thing to be done on all occasions, then the performance of the act is very easily done. Good manners are in evidence whenever one is polite, courteous and thoughtful of others.

How often have you wished to be as poised as your roommate? Or do you wonder how a friend of yours has such a "wavy" with the girls? Or do you wish you could always say the right thing just as Anne does? Some people seem to be born with that indescribable thing called charm. Others, after much practice, are often able to acquire this asset.

Your library has several books which may help you solve your special problem. If you are worried about making introductions,

Ignore my faults, you have some too.
Notice me, I am not to be taken for granted.

Encourage me to always do my best.
Won't you be a true Valentine?

The Coming Spring
Solomon Green '55

When will trees weep and mourn
It is then that spring is born,
And in minds love thoughts do ring
The bells and joys of the coming spring.

The coming spring is the time of year
When the weaning bells ring with other cheers,
That express the love of the singing birds
And all of that, too, in other words.

So through the heart pierces the snow
Blooming trees bear the load;
There, from nature we harvest summer long
Till the breeze of autumn brings leaves down.

Do you know what is expected of you as a week-end guest? Do you know how to write notes of congratulation or sympathy? Are you up on your tipping etiquette? #### There Are Balls and Balls But—

There is only one Sweetheart Ball of S.S.C. and Monday evening, February 15, Ball was the one that topped the list. The Ball began rolling when the guys and girls of S.S.C. crowded the floor for the most gala affair since the "Western Hop." We danced to the music of the Tenderly Band.

Many were there with their sweethearts by their sides and in. During intermission, Miss Ann Pierce, a freshman, was announced Miss Sweetheart and was presented with a box of candy by the vice proxy of the Student Council. The Kappas, not overlooking their sweetheart, Miss Jeanette Pasha, presented her with a box of candy.

Interpretations of songs in dance were done by Sarah Howard, Muriel Hatton, and Thomas Johnson. Two charming young ladies, Patricia Wright and Jean Huff, added to the music of "Glor' Worm."

Les Modes

Mercedes Mitchell '54

History repeats itself in everything—even fashions. Many years ago "spool-bee" shoes and "can-can" dresses, along with the narrow skirts with drapes on the side, were greatly in demand.

As time marches on, these same styles are returning with different names. The "can-can" dresses, in reality, are the ballerina skirts worn with a crinoline slip; the "spool-bee" shoes are the famed capotes; the narrow skirts with the drapes are actually the same; however, the silk seat is rapidly replacing the primitive drape.

Another feature which is creeping into "MI" lady's world of fashion is the long free flowing hair around the waist which are so reminiscent of those "roaring twenties." To be more exacting, it would seem as though the complete fashion era was being reincarnated.

With the lengthening of the waist comes the shortening of the hem, which fashion experts predict will range from fourteen to eighteen inches from the floor this season.

Cout dresses are still at the prime in the season's run of latest fashions. This too, is a derivative of the past—the old-time "Princess dress."

This season, the silk drape is done in smooth, costly looking woods and in colors that are neither too light nor dark. They are always neutral colors, often dark neutrals, importantly lightened with checks, tiny stripes or a dusting of white threads. This garment is often referred to as "The Dress of Sophistication."

"Take good care of your clothes — In the fashion world—History will continue to repeat itself.

Organization Highlights

Here's to Veterans . . . .

The Veterans Club would like to take this opportunity to welcome those veterans who are coming to S.S.C. for the first time. For your information, the veterans here are organized. We urge you to join our organization so that it might benefit by whatever you may have to offer. Please notice the bulletin boards for notices of exactly when and where we meet and understand that you are cordially invited.

Any veteran who has been discharged for any reason other than a dishonorable one is eligible for membership. What your counselor thinks of you is determined largely by whether or not you are a member of this, your own, organization.

Have you given any serious thought to your N.S.T.? Did you know that you can get $1,000.00 worth for only $66 per month, or any multiple of $500.00 up to $10,000.00 at the same rate? Then you may pay it monthly, quarterly, semi-annually, or annually. After you have paid the premium for one year, you can borrow 95 of that and be compelled to repay only the small interest. However, you may repay the principal whenever you wish. If you don't repay the principal, that much deducted from the value of your policy. Most of all, you may secure a Form 9-886 from any V.A. office, mail it to the February office, thereby authorizing the V.A. to deduct your premiums from your monthly benefits. Isn't that worth some consideration?

The members of the Savannah State College Y.M.C.A. are striving to make this year a successful one. Recently they organized a basketball team. This team will play against other "Y" teams both in and out of town. "Y" debating teams have been organized also. It will, from time to time, be debating some of the major questions that face our every day living.

The "Y" sent two delegates, Mr. Clarence Lofton, President, and Mr. Eugene Isaac, Advisor, to the regional council held in Atlanta, Georgia, in February.

This Christian organization is one which you may feel free to look in on at any time. Membership cards are available at all meetings for those desiring to become members.

Le Cercle Francais started the novel year "et ha bang." We welcomed a number of nouveaux camarades, most of them being members of the departement de natural science.

There are "baucoup d'" activities in store for the novel year. The winter quarter activities for which plans are now being made are: "Le plus Beau Homme" contest, Une partie francaise, and the compilation of a scrapbook. The scrapbook will be placed on exhibition "a la fin of the school year. Tout le monde may participate in and enjoy these activities.

Each session of le cercle Francais is concluded with some form of social entertainment. The primary form of entertainment so far has been the singing des chansons. Included among the songs are "La Marseillaise," the hymne nationale; the "real gene" "C'est si Bon," a la Eartha Kitt and "La Vie en Rose."

Camilla Hubert House Council . . .

The House Council of Camilla Hubert Hall has given a series of social-education programs for the development of the residents. The first program was about body care—hair, skin, nails, etc. On February 8, 1954, at 9:05 p.m. there was a demonstration given by Marie Davidson in the Reception room of Camilla Hubert Hall. Girls chosen as models were Misses Mamie Davis, Jeanne Miller, David Hester, and Nell Washington. These girls modeled play clothes.

Mrs. Stone gave a lecture on how to wear foundation garments and the importance of good posture as related to good looks. After the lecture and demonstration, prizes and refreshments were enjoyed.

Mrs. Stone is a former Home Economics instructor at Savannah State College. She is now an agent for Spargo and Desla foundation garments. These commodities were used for modeling. Mrs. Stone is presently returning the role of housewife and mother. Barbara Brunson, reporter.

IT'S ALL A MATTER OF TASTE

I've tried so many cigarettes. All brands from A to Z—but nothing beats that better taste: It's Lucky Strike for me!

Cherlene Bernstein

When you come right down to it, you smoke for one simple reason . . . enjoyment. And smoking enjoyment is all a matter of taste. Yes, taste is what counts in a cigarette. And Luckies taste better.

Two facts explain why Luckies taste better. First, L.S. M.F.T.—Lucky Strike means fine tobacco . . . light, mild, good-tasting tobacco. Second, Luckies are actually made better to taste better . . . always round, firm, fully packed to draw freely and smoke evenly.

So, for the enjoyment you get from better taste, and only from better taste, Be Happy—Go Lucky. Get a pack or a carton of better-tasting Luckies today.

If you're the kind of guy that hates to see his money parting, here's a tip to save you dough: Buy Luckies by the carton!
