SAVANNAH STATE COLLEGE CHORAL SOCIETY

Choral Society Presents Impressive Concert

On December 13, 1953 at Vesper Services, the Savannah State College family enjoyed a very impressive concert presented by the Choral Society.

It was obvious that the group, under the able direction of Dr. Clarence E. Braithwaite, had worked diligently and unrelentingly in order to gain the perfection of performance that was displayed.

The soloists sang with ease and with an unusual amount of expressiveness.

The musical interpretations were so effective that everyone in the audience was enveloped by the Christmas Spirit—... "Peace on earth—good will toward men..." The program was as follows:

"Angels We Have Heard On High," French Carol; "O Sing Your Songs," Choral Society; "Lullaby For Mary's Son," Anderson, "Christmas Bells," arr. by Braithwaite—Female

Old Friends to Trust! Old Books To Read! Alonzo Aragon

The Yuletide season brings good cheer to the library. It's a time for taking from their niches all those old but priceless pieces of our literary heritage. The Story of Christmas is still being written, but none surpasses the beauty of the stories told many, many years ago.

All of us have read our bible story of The Wise Men. Very few of us have read and compared the Revised Standard Version of the Christmas. Now is a good time to make our observations on this modern language translation.

An unusual book for everyone at Christmas is M. I. Becker's Home Book of Christmas. It contains the best of the seasonal stories by distinguished authors. The book is arranged in sections following the events of Christmas: Christmas Eve, The Magi; The Preparations; The Waits; The Great Day; The Stockings; The Tree; The Dinner. It is rich in carols, songs and poems for each group. This title is recommended for first purchase to anyone wishing an all-in-one Christmas book.

Charles Dickens' Christmas Books contains the universal Christmas story—"A Christmas Carol," "The Chimes" and "The Cricket on the Hearth."

Washington Irving's chapters in his Sketch-book describing an old English Christmas can be read annually: "Christmas," "The Stage Coach," "Christmas Eve," "Christmas Day" and "The Christmas Dinner."

Savannah State Into its Biggest Building Program in Years

Traveling around the campus of Savannah State College, Georgia's largest institution of higher education for Negroes, one can see a dream coming true. Five construction projects already initiated. The ground has already been broken and land being leveled for the annex to the famous Wilcox Gymnasium.

This annex will make it possible for a larger and better Health and Physical Education program. It will supplement the gymnastics facilities and make it possible for more modern gymnastic operators and a better gym for intramural, as well as intercollegiate competition. The Shafter Construction Company of Hinesville, has already set up their office on the campus and construction is proceeding as rapidly as humanly possible.

The Century Heating Plant, located between Canilla Hubert Hall and Meldrim Auditorium, is near completion, with pipes being laid connecting the plant with the numerous campus buildings. This will enable Savannah State College to have a uniform heating system and equipped with modern heating machinery. Thomas Brettingham and Company of Augusta is constructing the heating plant.

Henry Van Dyke's Story of the Other Wise Man is reread every holiday season with continued appreciation and understanding. From now until December 30 a new book could be more attractive than these old favorites. The week after Christmas most of us can find some time to catch up on new books we intended to read but—So shop around at your library and check out for the holiday books you'd like to take home with you.

We suggest the following to help you enjoy A Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year, too! FICTION: Ambler, Epitaph for a Spy; Baldwin, Go Tell it on the Mountain; Beller, Year's Best Science Fiction Novels; Cannon, Look to the Mountain; Casy, Mister Johnson; Coates, Faithful in My Fashion; Fletcher, Men of Albatraz; Fowler, The Intruder; Godden, Kingfishers Catch Fire; Petty, The Narrows; Yerby, The Devil's Laughter.

ABOUT PEOPLE: Botkin, Trial Judge; Bottomo, The Challenge; Crosby, Call Me Lucky; Kugelmas, Night of Banquets; Bocca, Elizabeth and Philip; Richards, The Last Billionaire; Stern, The Women in Gaudin's Life; Morris, Those Kockefeller Brothers; Harris, Father Divine-Holy Husband; Kim, I Married a Korean.

Grounds at Savannah State College and will enable the Home Economics Department to initiate a program which will equip men and women to manage various types of institutions.

The Sewage Disposal Plant, connecting Savannah State College's sewage system with the city of Savannah, is nearly completed with Espy Construction and Paving Company of Savannah directing the works.

There can be no question about Savannah State College being engaged in its greatest building program in the history of the institution.

There are five major construction already initiated with the necessary buildings being constructed. Visiting Savannah State College now is like visiting a big industrial center, with buildings being directed simultaneously, with Dr. W. K. Payne as its shepherd. The flock at Georgia's largest institution for higher education for Negroes is covering ground with its construction program.

MODERN MAN'S DESTINY: Kates, The Use of Life; Menzies, Fight the Good Fight; Fosdick, Faith for Tough Times; Pearson, Here's a Faith for You; Ice, Tomorrow is Yours; Jones, The Pursuit of Happiness; Russell, New Hope for a Changing World; Counts, Who Speaks for Man?

SCIENCE: Syngde, Science-Sense and Nonsense; Simmons, The Young Scientists; Pickering, The Stars are Yours; Sackett, The Atom at Work; Rapoport, Great Adventures in Medicine.

THE WORLD OVER: Carter, Those Devils in Baggy Pants; Dodds, The Age of Paradox; Taylor, Sword and Swastika; Bertram, The Russians in Focus; Flynn, While You Slept; Voorhees, Karenin Tales; Poldmann, Rendezvous with Destiny.

The Why's of Christmas

Ruby Simmons '54
Shirley Jenkins '54

We believe that people usually misinterpret holidays because they do not understand why we should celebrate them or in what activities we should participate. When people understand one or both of these factors concerning international holidays, the celebration of them will be quite different.

Christmas is an international holiday that is often misused. Do you know why Christmas is celebrated—carols are sung, decorations used, gifts are given?

It is said that Christmas has a two-fold significance: the religious, commemorating the birth of Christ, and the social or festive aspect, celebrating the seasonal practices of many people. Christmas is, originally Christmas Mass (meaning Christ's Mass or church festival of Christ), is celebrated throughout the Christian world as the anniversary of the nativity of Christ.

One of the most charming ways of celebrating the holiday is the custom of singing carols. Carols were imported into England soon after the Norman conquest. The word "carol" means almost any Christmas hymn. The first carol was written by Francis Assis in 1223 as a means of singing praises to God for giving us Christ.

The custom of decorating trees and using other decorations at Christmas time came from the Germans. Boniface, who was sent there as a missionary in the eighth century, converted the sacrifices to idols by a fir tree adorned in tribute to the Christ Child.

The giving of gifts at this time began when God gave the world His only begotten Son—the day we call Christmas Eve. Later, on the twelfth night, the three kings offered the Holy Child gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh. Christ eventually gave His own life to save the world. In an attempt to acknowledge the greatness of the Divine Gift, His followers marked this season by a general practice of exchanging gifts.

Christmas Thoughts

Solomon Green '55

I can imagine small children preparing to hang up their stockings for Santa Claus; college students doing their last-minute shopping; loaded buses and taxis zooming away with the students' homework bound. All seem to be determined, hopeful and slinging for the same goal—that of reuniting with friends and relatives back home. Christmas! Christmas! A happy time for everyone. Think how monotonous college life would become if we did not have such a holiday.

But remember that wherever we go someone will be watching us, caring for and protecting us. I speak of Jesus. Let us not forget that upon this day in Bethlehem of Judea, a child, Jesus Christ, was born to the Virgin Mary in a stable because there was no room for them in the inn.

LOST VENTURE

By Julius Edward Reeves, Jr.

When I have given my love,
And gained only solitude in return,
I find myself in a mist
Of weariness.
Nothing but loneliness am I
Webbed in, to dampen the threads
Of life with burning tears,
I endeavor to accomplish
High esteem in my venture
For a romance.
But never have I found
A part of my ideal companion
In any of my escapades.

Nearest to this was you,
But in our relations, you
Seem to depart from me.
Dauntlessly, I trust my Unmatched love in you.
And probably—unconsciously
I am left to ponder
In a web of dreams,
Never ending in happy moments.
The only loving moment
I share with you, is when
I partake to unite my love
To its matured state in the highest Esteem of life.

After this air of joy,
All is done, and that web
Of loneliness closes me out
In a world of my own.
In this world, if you but Knew that there is no greater
Love than My love for you,
My darling, My darling,
I love you much,
So much, 'til in my
Solitude, I find happiness
While I spin the thread
Of this mistleweed web,
In which I live to build
A dream life for you,
And only you.

In this out-moded life,
To my best, I shall Perfect in a sort of Utopia, those ideas I
Assume portray you most
In my misty ability.
It shall be yours, and yours for keeps.
A surface of marble,
Walls of gold
And a roof to compete
With the sun.
You see, my love
This web is built for you,
And its composition must Conform your love.

And when I shall have Completed my task

In an amless venture,
I shall ascend to the Gods,
To the star of Venus that
Guided me in life,
Where I shall find no
More solitude, and my
Web of mistleweed thread fades away.

CHRISTMAS MELODIES

Farris M Hudson '55
Oh dear hearts, can you guess
What I hear?
Sounds, along the course of the air,
Melodies from the breath of the falling snow
Bring joy and happiness of the season's show.

I wonder why are the stars so bright?
And the melodies I hear are so soft and light?

So you do understand as I can see by your smiles.
The melodies are in honor of the little Christ Child.

Joy is imparted to all of the trees
By the glorious sounds of Christmas melodies.

The Meaning of God's Gift to the World

"Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men." Christmas is a day designed in remembrance of the birth of Christ. The day that a gift for the entire world was presented.

This divine present was accepted in a stable in the little town of Bethlehem. The meaning of God's gift cannot be over-emphasized because of the significant part that it plays in the world of chaos. The gift of which Isaiah spoke, "For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given; and the government shall be upon His shoulder; and His name shall be called Wonderful, Counselor, The Mighty God, The Everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace."

Jesus, the Son of God, was the gift to the world. He was born in a lowly manger, lived in poor surroundings and grew up in a confused world attempting to establish the high ideal of peace and good will.

Christmas is a time when we as universal brothers should bury all thoughts of hatred and strife; lay down our arms, our doubts, and look forward to an everlasting life of peace and good will. Peace and good will are the fundamentals of the gift of God. The singing of Christmas carols, the sending of seasonal cards and the giving of gifts will instill in us the meaning of God's gift to the world.

The Tiger's Roar staff wishes you a Merry Christmas and a Happy and Prosperous New Year!

What Christmas Should Mean to Us

Doris A. Sanders, Copy Editor

I wonder if we really understand the true meaning of Christmas. Is it just another holiday, a day for frolicking and having a good time? We seem to embark upon the Yuletide Season with little or no knowledge of significance and what it should mean to us.

Christmas Day, December 25, has been set aside as the birthday of Jesus, "the Saviour" of the world. Everywhere this day should be a day of worship, prayer, and glorification to Jesus Christ. Certainly it is a day of celebration but not the kind to which we have become accustomed. We should thank God for sending to us His Son, Jesus, who came to save the world. Then too, we should give thanks to God for enabling us to have the privilege of enjoying another Christmas Day. When the shepherds saw the star which led them to Jesus, "They rejoiced with exceeding great joy."

Let us make this Christmas a glorious day. Let us bow our heads in sincere prayer and resolve to give to God this complete day of worship and every day that follows.

Let us sing as the angels sang, "Peace on earth good will to men" and make our Christmas, not just another holiday, but the birthday of Jesus Christ. Let us be guided by that same star the shepherd saw in the east and guide our lives to Christ and His teachings. And as we enter upon a New Year, let us continue to keep Christ in our lives.

A Christmas Message

It is always a pleasure to extend greetings to the students of Savannah State College at Christmas time. At no other time during the academic year are hearts and attitudes better conditioned to the finest ideals of our culture. It is a time when one remembers friends and those who are in need. It is a time also when individuals broadcast wishes of joy to all men alike irrespective of relationships. If this spirit of Christmas were not so fleeting, and if it could be retained by some means throughout the year, the joy of living would be immensely enhanced. While the students of Savannah State College are observing and celebrating the 1953 Christmas, it is my wish that they may devise ways and means of increasing the longevity of this interest in the fellowman. May a greater portion of this Christmas remain with you and make our college and world a greater joy to mankind.

Signed: W. K. PAYNE,
President.

LONNYE'S DEN

To you, who have "crossed the burning sands" during probation week, we take this time to congratulate you. Although at times you seemed to have wanted to turn around and not complete the journey, the urge to keep going was back in you finally. It was completed. Now I'm sure you can all look back and say, that it was worth the effort and time that were spent for that glorious hour. Again we congratulate you.

The spirit of Christmas has entered the hearts of all Savannah State students and we are now looking forward to the end of the quarter when we'll be going home. The Christmas Spirit has been many of us to sing—"I'll Be Home for Christmas". I wish you all a very Merry Christmas and Happy New Year, and when we all return I trust our New Year's resolution will lead us to study hard for better grades.

The Mistletoe—
When we are home for Christmas and mistletoe is hanging around, do we really know why it's there? Mistletoe, a little green plant with waxen berries, is often nailed up over doors and around the house for decoration at Christmas time.

During ancient times the gods, a powerful religious group of ancient Gaul, Britain, and Iceland, believed that mistletoe was sacred, and gathered it in solemn ceremony. The ancient world of England also prized it and regarded it as a symbol of peace. When warriors found it growing in a place where they were fighting, they would declare a truce. And thus it became the custom of hanging the plant over the entrance of doors as a symbol of friendship to all who entered it. If we are under mischievous today with loved ones, the tradition is a nice one.

What happens to us in December? Why are we full of laughs and happiness and a gaiety? Allen Fisher said that—Everyone is merry now.
Lo walking down the street
And twinkly eyes and winkly eyes
Are all the eyes you meet.

Everyone is eager now
To shop and trim a tree,
And knowing smiles and glowing smiles
Are all the smiles you see.

Everyone is jolly now,
This finely-jingly season,
And only can't be happy dogs
Can't understand the reason.

Everywhere there is hustling and bustling as we all get ready for the big day. Gay carols are sung and heard everywhere. Delicious smells of punning pudding come from the kitchen and mysterious-looking packages appear and disappear. Christmas is a wonderful time!

In all the excitement of the holiday many of us are apt to forget the meaning of Christmas. Christmas is the celebration of the birth of Christ. It is because of His greatness and the joy that He brought to us that we remember His birthday.

A gift for your family and loved ones will be more than a gift because your Christmas gift, if you plan and make it, is really you.

Again, Merry Christmas!!

Glamor pants take lead in designs for looting

The current television era with its emphasis on "at home" entertaining has touched off a popular trend toward glamorous lounging clothes that are comfortable and yet attractive enough to wear in greeting the most discriminating of guests.

Designers from coast to coast have pulled every trick out of the bag to create fascinating styles in lounging clothes and have designed glamorous pants that are strikingly feminine.

Pants are being made of everything from fine laces, velvets and chiffons to denims decorated with jewels. Styles vary from the simple slack type to the gay and fascinating, tapered bell fighter pants. While there is a number of plain, quiet styles in subdued colors, there are also everyday and washed easily, many a modern woman prefers the numerous gay loud patterns—leopard skin prints, and zebra stripes.

For women who do not have the figure for the narrow tendor pants, designers have created attractive styles in pleated, peep-toe, bell bottoms, culottes and pedal pushers. There are also clever lounging costumes in felt and jersey versions of robes and skirts to add even more variety.

The Silkiest Season
The thrill of this winter's evening fashions seems to lie in a beautiful form of hide-and-seek around the top of cocktail and evening dresses.

New designers' devices to conceal yet reveal are: the casual looking but dainty jacked draping, the rib necked jacket that hides a strapless dress beneath, more important sleeves that reach up to the shoulder times and imposing collars that surround the bosom but demurely stop right at the shoulder line.

Even the glamorous ball dress, despite its strapless formality of plain yards, often takes wide unadorned straps, plain straps or diagonal straps over one shoulder with the other bare.

newcomers are Johnnie H. Lyon, Nathan S. Mitchell, and Marvin N. Taylor, Jr. We, as Omega men, are welcoming the neophytes to an organization that is developing and achieving from the inspiration received from our four cardinal principles—Uplift, Scholarship, Perseverance and Manliness.

We, as a fraternity, believe in a strong brotherhood, and one that is stable. And as we approach this Yuletide season, we wish to see you, too, to be brotherly toward your colleagues, friends, classmates and instructors.

Zeta Phi Beta Sorority
Rho Beta chapter of Zeta Phi Beta sorority has begun to define plans for activities during the current school year. Perhaps the most interesting plan is the sponsoring of a "Girl of the Year." This young woman must possess all of the qualities that Zeta stands for—finer womanhood, sisterly love, scholarship and affable personality.

At a recent meeting the chapter had as its guest Soror Anita Stripling, Basileus of the Alpha Theta Zeta chapter of Savannah, Soror Stripling brought with her the regional meeting of the sorority and suggestions for our year's activities.

Rho Beta has added two members to its district. They are Barbara Brunson and Cyde Falson. Our sponsor this year is Miss Madeline Harrison.

Organization Highlights

HERE'S TO VETERANS

James C. Cooper
The Veterans' Club, after having organized under the advisory of Mr. N. R. Freeman, has already gone a long way in the school year. We are quite satisfied with our choice for president for this year, Mr. James O. Thomas. He is a veteran of some six years' service in the Army, having attained the rank of Tech Sergeant. This alone, supported by such a brilliant showing of the club in the homecoming festival, is indicative of his capabilities as a leader. Mention cannot be made of all Mr. Thomas has already contributed toward making the club a success. Our president may easily be considered as having a versatile character; he can be as shrewd or sympathetic as necessity may deem. We are looking forward to a prosperous year under his leadership. Other officers are: Messrs. Herman Terry, vice president; Willie H. Hooks, secretary; Henry Johnson, treasurer; Harold Duggins, financial secretary; John Paul Jones, parliamentarian.

The club wishes to thank Miss Francine Fryer most sincerely for being its queen on homecoming. We are concentrating on a more impressive way of showing our gratitude.

The Veterans' Club wishes to induce the membership of as many veterans as possible—and that should be all who are enrolled at the college. Very soon we hope to see a considerable percentage of the veterans as bona fide members. Plans are now being drawn to organize a "post" that might offer pecuniary aid to deserving veterans at various times. Such will receive a minimum interest and only the entire club can benefit by it.

It might be interesting to note that the V.A. is not concerned with whether you change your MAJOR or not, as long as your curriculum is leading to a B. S. or A. B. degree and can be gotten within the time allotted you. So, if you want to change your major from Chemistry to Elementary Education, it may be done without consulting the V. A.

and you will not have used your authorized—ONE CHANGE OF PROGRAM.

The S. L. A.
The committee of the Student Loan Association has been delighted in serving the students of Savannah State College and hope you have enjoyed the service.

Nevertheless, we would appreciate it, if more students would purchase stock. As you know, through your purchasing stock enables the Student Loan Association to function. Please give this consideration; for the coming year we would like to have more stockholders.

For contact or information, please contact one of the following persons: Marie Barnaswell, Timothy Ryan, Johnnie P. Jones, or Mildred Graham. Mr. Ben Ingersoll, advisor.

Meeting of the Men's Dormitory Council

The Men's Dormitory Council met and discussed many items that are of interest to the faculty members and alumni as well as the students.

The male students are looking forward to having open house at the completion of the building of the new dormitory. The change of laundry hours was discussed. The new laundry hours are from 7:30 to 1:30.

Christmas carols were sung by the different groups in order to strengthen the Christmas spirit among the student body.

Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

must homecoming was celebrated. In particular, we were impressed with the "Bulletin" published in commemoration of the event. It was a well-aided publication particularly notable for a two-page center spread reproduction of an aerial photograph of the beautiful college campus.

President Payne and his faculty and staff are doing a great work for which this City and County should be sincerely grateful.

CLAFIN

Clafin College defeated the Savannah State Tigers by a score of 33-0. Clafin scored in the second quarter when Wright ran 55 yards through the Tigers' line for their touchdown. Clafin made their last score on a 70-yard pass from Quarterback Walker to Halfback Dingle.

The Tigers' only serious threat to score came in the last play of the game when Halfback Robert Butler intercepted Quarterback Walker's pass and ran 58 yards to Clafin's 11-yard line.

PAINE 13 - STATE *

The Savannah State Tigers closed out the season on Thanksgiving Day with their old traditional rival, Paine College, and were defeated 13-0.

Paine scored in the first and second quarters and went on to get their revenge for the 20-0 defeat handed to them by the Tigers last Thanksgiving.

Statistically, the Tigers outplayed Paine, but they were unable to capitalize on their plays when they counted. The Tigers made 9 first downs in Paine's 6. They rolled up 178 yards rushing and 84 yards passing to Paine's 151 yards rushing and 63 yards passing.

Five seniors on the Tigers' squad ended their college football careers on Thanksgiving. They are William Westerspoon, halfback and captain of the team; Tommy Turner, fullback; Lester Jackson, end; Ivory Jefferson, guard; LaVerne Hoskins, halfback.

Last year a survey of leading colleges throughout the country showed that smokers in those colleges preferred Luckies to any other cigarette.

This year another far more extensive and comprehensive survey—supervised by college professors and based on more than 31,000 actual student interviews—shows that Luckies lead again over all other brands, regular or king size. . . and by a wide margin! The No. 1 reason: Luckies taste better.

Smoking enjoyment is all a matter of taste, and the fact of the matter is Luckies taste better—first, because L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. And second, Luckies are made better to taste better. So, Be Happy—Go Lucky!
