A Prosperous Year To Class Of '57

Many New Books Added To Library

Since the library is really the core of any educational institution, it must therefore strive to meet the needs of all its clientele. With this view in mind—your library staff has endeavored to build up the library collection and services. As a result of this there are many new books on our shelves for your use. This expansion has brought forth a few changes in library regulations and services. Circulating-books are now available for a two week loan period instead of the one week limit previously used. The number of subscriptions to newspapers and magazines has been increased, book issues of the New York Times, Savannah Morning News and the London Times are available on microfilm. A second microfilm reader is maintained. Films, pictures and record collections are now in the developmental stage. In a matter of a few weeks, a new service will be provided for the convenience of our patrons; a rental typewriter will be placed in the stock room by the Grammet Corporation. Persons wishing to use the typewriter should make inquiries at the desk. This is the first time, stock permits must be secured at the circulation desk by all persons who find it necessary to use the library stacks.

In keeping with the institutional calendar of events and in the area of publicity, periodically attractive displays and exhibits will be arranged in the library reading room. It is hoped that these exhibits will help inspire and promote variety and growth in reading by our patrons. The library staff invites suggestions for books and other materials that the students wish placed

Homecoming Nov. 14 To Be Gala Occasion

The Homecoming on November 14 will be a gala affair. All members of the homecoming committee have rolled up their sleeves and gone to work on plans that promise to make this 1953 homecoming an enjoyable one.

There will be a parade the morning before the game as usual, the time and route of the parade will be announced later.

The buildings and grounds, with all their colors, streamers, massive oaks and hanging moss, will stand out with signs of welcome to all who come within our gates.

Host and hostesses will be on hand to see that all of our guests enjoy themselves while here at Savannah State College.

Notice the bulletin boards for announcements of what you can do toward the success of our 1953 homecoming.

Engineering and Technical Division Add To School

Savannah State College continues to grow. The departments of Education, Social Science, and Business Administration are now being made into divisions. Engineering and Technical Sciences Divisions are being added.

Dr. W. K. Payne, president of Savannah State College, announces that the Board of Regents has approved the formation of seven Instructional Divisions, and the General Extension and Correspondence Division at Savannah State College. At the present time Savannah State College has three Instructional Divisions, plus General Extension. The present divisions are: arts and sciences, home economics and trades and industry.

The new divisions will be: humanities, social science, natural science, education, business administration, engineering and technical sciences and vocational training. These Instructional Divisions with General Extension, will comprise the Savannah State College program, totaling eight divisions.

The departments of mathematics, physics, and chemistry will compose the natural science division. The education division will be composed of the departments of elementary and secondary education. The secondary education majors will specialize in social science, general science, mathematics, English and literature, commercial subjects, distributive education, industrial education, and general and special shop subjects. In the division of business administration the students can specialize in industrial management, office practice, accounting and business and financial economics.

According to a statement by Dr. Payne, this program will depend upon current studies and available facilities. However, steps are already being taken for the implementation of this program.

Savannah State College enrollment has surpassed the thousand mark and the new college program is being designed to meet the needs of the students.

"Frosh" Week Observed With 360 Approximated In Class

By Mary Lois Falson
On September 21, 1953, orientation week began at S. S. C. Approximately 360 new comers hailed from various states to become members of our college family.

upperclassmen, the beginners were green "cat caps."

Upperclassmen assisting during orientation week were Beatrice Baker, Evelyn Culpepper, Alma Hunter, Virginia James, Gwendolyn Keith, Marlene Lind-

These newcomers were greeted by Student Council President, Timothy U. Ryals. He stated in his message that they were welcome to take an active part in all of the activities that Savannah State has to offer for molding and developing their character and personality.

As another feature of "cat week," as it is often termed by sey, Mary Ann Revels, Clarence Lofton, Walter McCall, Oliver Swaby and James Denier.

The President's reception was held at his home to which all freshmen were invited. It was an enjoyable affair.

A "get acquainted" dance at Wilcox Gymnasium with music by Joe Bristow and his orchestra climaxed orientation week.

DR. WILLIAM K. PAYNE, PRESIDENT OF SAVANNAH STATE COLLEGE, ANNOUNCES THE FOLLOWING CONSTRUCTION AND REMODELING WORK AT THE STATE COLLEGE: THE CONTRACT FOR THE ANNEX TO WILCOX GYMNASIUM HAS BEEN AWARDED TO SHAFER CONSTRUCTION COMPANY OF HINESVILLE, GA. IT IS EXPECTED WORK WILL BE STARTED IMMEDIATELY ON THE BUILDING.

Brooks, Pulitzer Winner 1st Book Off The Press

The first novel by Gwendolyn Brooks, Negro Pulitzer Prize winner in poetry, was published this week by Harper and Brothers of New York City. Titled "Maud Martha," the story centers around a Negro daughter, wife and mother who lives in the Bronzeville section of Chicago.

According to the publishers' statement, the novel tells in vivid, poetic prose "the fear that underlies every moment—fear that beyond the safety of the neighborhood world the person born with a dark face will be looked upon as an intruder."

Miss Brooks' first volume of poetry, "A Street in Bronzeville," was published by the same company in 1945 and in 1949 she won the Pulitzer Prize in Poetry for her second volume of poetry, "Annie Allen." The novel is her

Current News

By Thomas R. Evans—'55

The most shocking tragedy to be felt by the entire American public, for some time, was the kidnap-murder of little Bobby Greenlease. This boy, son of a multi-millionaire, was apprehended by Miss Bonnie Brown Heady and Carl Austin Hall. The twin kidnapers received a $600,000 ransom and later murdered the child. They are now on trial in Kansas City. The news that the court's decision will coincide with the opinion of the American people on what should be done is this couple.

True recent election, after the appointments of certain officials to high offices in the government may have some effect on the present administration policy.

The appointment of Mayor Thomas A. Burke of Cleveland by Governor Frank J. Lausche of Ohio, a Democrat, gave the once minority party a majority of 48 seats in the Senate to the G. O. P. 47. It is interesting to watch the Senate votes on the next legislative issue. The election of Lester Johnson to Congress marks the first time that a Democrat has ever been elected from the Ninth Wisconsin Congressional District. The election was viewed with national interest as a possible reflection of a midwestern farmer vote on President Eisenhower's campaign. It is also interesting that Wisconsin is going Democratic in the Congressional election next year?

The appointment of Governor Earl Warren as chief justice of the Supreme Court could be a strategic move toward solving the segregation problem in the public schools. This issue will come before the Supreme Court in the near future.

Mr. L. B. Toomer, a local Negro civic leader, was appointed by President Eisenhower to the Treasury Register post. He is the first Negro to hold this office since James C. Napier was appointed by President Coolidge thirty years ago.

The Yugoslav-Italian clash over Trieste remains yet to hold the spotlight in international news. Both of these European nations claim possession of this strategic coastal city. I predict that the United Nations will intervene in this dispute and will try to work out an agreement between the two nations.

FARRIS HUDSON—'55
Once there was a troop of echoes
"Dancing in the air"
When they went nobody knows
But I am sure they went somewhere.

They sounded like a band of beating drums
Floating on a cloud.
The sweetest songs one would like to hear
But not so very loud.

Most people thought it was the angels
Singing their theme song after a silent prayer.
To see this light would have been an amazing thing
But no one could get up there.

So float on echoes, wherever you are,
And keep the tune of your sweetest songs
In a mental picture we will see you
And count all the loved ones.

A HEART'S CONFESSIO—

And my actions are very odd.

Meet Our President

It is a pleasure to greet the TIGER'S ROAR staff and the citizens which it serves at this season of the year. The opening of school is always an important period for both the students who are returning and those who have come to the college for the first time.

Each group comes to the college looking for some definite things which are to be realized, extended, or started during the current academic year. The frame of mind is a genuine basis for progress if it can be systematically developed.

One method for developing this attitude or frame of mind is systematic planning. Students should write down in their diaries or career books or on a plain piece of paper some of the important things which they would like to accomplish or achieve during the present academic year. The act of writing out these goals will impress upon them the necessity for doing something toward their realization. At the end of the fall quarter just before school closes for the Christmas recess, this list should be reviewed by the student. At that time some attempt should be made to evaluate the progress made toward the realization or achievement of each objective. This preliminary evaluation will serve as a foundation for readjustments in goals or aspirations for the winter and spring quarters. A similar procedure should be followed at the end of the winter quarter and the beginning of the spring quarter.

At the end of the spring quarter a special time should be set aside for the final checking of progress or development that has taken place. In each instance the student should be objective in his evaluation. Care should be taken to face in every respect the situation as it exists. Where no progress has been made, an explanation should be forthcoming which would not be a mere relationship, where progress has been made an explanation should point up the things which made progress possible. It is my opinion that the application of this technique will help to make the school year a better year for both freshmen and continuing students. It is hoped that each student will give the plan an honest trial. May the year 1953-54 be monumental in the college career of each one.

This year it is indeed a pleasure for the staff of the Tiger's Roar, along with the upper classmen and faculty members, to extend a hearty welcome to one of the largest freshman classes that we have witnessed at S.S.C.

Not only can we boast of one of the largest enrollments in the history of Savannah State College, but we have representatives from many of the Southern, mid-Western and Eastern States.

The class of 1957 has already displayed that it is one that will prove an asset to our college community. There are members of the class that are outstanding in the fine arts. A positive indication of our talented freshmen was exhibited at their annual talent show.

Another unique feature of the class of '57 is that it is the first class to participate in the initiation of the General Education program which is a step forward in higher education today.

It is not too early for the class of '57 to begin some serious thinking along with fun. Savannah

State College offers many opportunities in the development of one's mental, physical, religious, social and aesthetic values.

With such an extensive college program, it is a matter of the survival of the fittest. It is up to the individual to adopt a receptive attitude and to grasp every advantage offered by our college, to develop a well rounded personality.

Roll Call of Loyalty
We have many extra-curricular activities and one of the strongest in the area of sports.

In order to develop a winning team in any of the sports—football, basketball, baseball, track, etc.—we must morally support them by displaying good school spirit and individual good will.

The class of '57 is a challenge to Savannah State College and our 62 year old institution has what it takes to challenge the class of '57. I implore you, class of '57, to accept the opportunities offered by Savannah State College. Savannah State... the best

Are You Guilty

Dorothy Moore—'56

The spirit of the Savannah State College students seems to be a little off this school term, which may be the cause of our football setbacks.

The students are partially members of the football team. During the time S. S. C. is winning it is plenty of pep which encourages the team, but when we are losing everything is dull; therefore, the team becomes less active.

When a player gets injured the yelling stops and he feels as

If the students think that he didn't play well. This naturally depresses the injured player and is the main time cheering should be done.

When a player is entering the field one should not make smart remarks because it will discourage him and cause him to fill his mind with remorse and insecurity.

So, if the students of S. S. C. would yell throughout the game, perhaps victory would be attained—if not in score—in morale.

Creative Tributes

GREETINGS TO THE FRESHMAN CLASS—

From
President of the Student Council
Timothy U. Ryals
I greet you with smiles from Savannah State College.
Successful students I hope you will be
In pursuing the things you greatly desire,
And also the things you highly admire.

We are glad to have you and we want you to stay
We'll be glad to assist you in every possible way.
Take advantage of all opportunities that you are able to utilize.
And as the years go by you will have no regrets.
May your pathway be bright
Your dreams come true,
Your school year be happy,
And success to you.

Perhaps you think I place everyone above you
But, I love you, deep down in my heart.

There are some things you may not understand
But they are meaningless, as you should know.

So please accept me as I am
Because in my heart, I love you.
Time changes things 'tis true.
Yes, it brings things we can hardly bear.

It hasn't changed you, your love, nor smile
That's why, in my heart I care.
Don't think I am a flirt
When I am constantly with someone else;

Please understand that I love you
And I want you for myself.

When my love for you is being doubted
And what I do, you do not know.
Just remember that I love you
And my love shall follow you wherever you go.

MEMORIES YOU'LL NEVER FORGET—
Dorothy Moore—'55

When your lover has left you
And you are all alone;
And your life is worth nothing
But to roam,

Just bring into your memory the time he was home,
Yet, those days are passed and gone

Think of the times you walked in the park;

And every word he said speeded directly to your heart,
And you thought then you would never depart.

Just think of the times in the moonlight
You kissed, and your heart beat as though it should miss.

The time he was your Romeo
And you were his Juliet;
Yes, these are memories, memories you will never forget.

A POEM, A PICTURE, A SONG—
Nathan Dell—'54

To me you are a poem,
A lovely poem.
A poem whose writer is He who wrote

Across the sky the Milky Way,
A poem that moves with the grace of
Drifting clouds on a still day.

To me you are a picture,
A lovely picture,
A picture whose painter is He who

Paints the sunsets and the dawns
And the glory of autumn,
A picture whose beauty shall never fade,
But always as fresh as the morning

To me you are a song,
A lovely song . . .
Whose composer is He who composes the music of the wind . . .

And of falling rain,
A song whose melody I hear whenever I am and handling me when the shadows are deep . . .

Rush Parties—

With the incoming of the three hundred and more Freshmen, the Greek Letter organizations gave elaborate Rush Parties for those newcomers. The Sigma Gamma Rho and the Kappa opened the first rush party in the College Center on October 19, with the Delta on October 20, with the theme, "Game Night With Delta." The A. K. A. on October 21 and the Zetas on October 22. "Playtime With Zetas" was the talented "Frob."

The Freshmen displayed wonderful talent on their Talent Night Program on October 7. The Talent Evening was an enjoyable one and should always be listed on the memo pads. We send our sincere congratulations to you.

Old Faced—

During the past few weeks we have seen old faces on our campus. Among them were: Ira Ocully, Willie Pugh, who is back from Korea; Second Lieutenant Adolph Carter, who is home on a furlough following his graduation from Officers Candidate School at Fort Benning, Columbus, Georgia. Mr. Carter, eighteen months ago, graduated as summa cum laude from Savannah State College.

Greek Letter Organizations

ALPHA PHI ALPHA
"Marilyn Deeds, Scholarship and Love for All Mankind," these are the aims of Alpha Phi Alpha.

This year marks the fifth year that the Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity has been in existence on the campus of Savannah State College.

The Alphas are planning to make this year one of the great strides of progress. During the school year this organization will celebrate their annual observance of Founder's Day, Fraternity for Citizenship Week, and many other inspirational and educational activities.

The officers of Alpha Phi Alpha Chapter, Delta Eta chapter, this year are as follows: president, Curtis V. Cooper; corresponding secretary, John B. Middleton; recording secretary, Willie J. Johnson; chief of pledges, Ruben L. Gamble; financial secretary, William D. Wood, Jr.; treasurer, Timothy U. Ryles; historian, Thomas J. Polite; chaplain, Charles L. Branner; sergeant-at-arms, Rudolph V. Hardwick.

These officers of Delta Eta Chapter are working hard to maintain the objectives and traditions of Alpha Phi Alpha since its historical beginning, December 4, 1906, at Cornell University, Ithaca, N. Y.

ALPHA KAPPA ALPHA
The Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority under the leadership of Miss Delores Perry is planning big things for the campus and community.

I hope you're looking forward to the annual play which will be presented either the winter or spring quarter. And don't forget "fashionista" on the 20th of November.

The Kappa Alpha has many other surprises in store for you, so keep your eyes and ears open.

The Gamma Chi Chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity opens its 1953-54 school year with Farewell to Lester Davis, Richard Hockett and Albert Bryant, who are to join the Armed Forces.

June Graduate Is Engaged—

Miss Mary Ann Robinson's engagement to Sergeant David M. Jones, United States Air Force, has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben T. Robinson. Miss Robinson is a Savannahian and a June graduate of Savannah State College.

Our Queen—

See Miss Savannah State, charming and attractive as usual going about the campus in her same gracious way. Miss Savannah State, who is really Miss Henrice Thomas of Rome, Georgia, is a senior majoring in Home Economics. She is affiliated with the College Choir, Home Economics Club and dean of pledges of the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority.

Misses Beatrice Walker and Evelyn James are Miss Savannah State's attendants. Miss Walker is a senior majoring in Elementary Education and a member of the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority. Miss James is a senior majoring in Elementary Education also. She is a member of the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority. Both are Savannahians.

An Educated Dollar Makes Sense—Give to Your Campus Chest.

the following new officers:

James Curtis, Polemarch
Ezra Merritt, Vice-Polemarch
Mary F. Denier, Keeper of Records
Archie Robinson, Keeper of Exchequer
Samson Pradier, Historian
James Murray, Strategus
Oscar Dillard, Dean of Pledges

With these able officers working coherently to achieve, we feel certain that this will be the Kappa's most successful year at Savannah State College.

During the summer months, the Kappas who were enrolled, worked cooperatively with the Savannah Alumni Chapter and published the "KAPPA KOL-UMN," a monthly news digest. These publications were designed to give vacationing brothers of the happenings on the local scene; as well as to serve as a stimulant for the forthcoming school year. The success of these publications may be directly attributed to the sound advice of Mr. John Camper and the very efficient work of James Denier and John Paul Jones.

OMEGA PSI PHI

The Alpha Gamma Chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity starts the 1953-54 school year with the following officers: L. F. Williams, Jr., Editor; Vice President, Walter McCall; Keeper of Records and Seals, James Ashe; Keeper of Finance, Roy Allen; James E. Hill, Vice Herald; Chairman, Arthur Johnson; sergeant-at-arms, Robert Philson; and Dean of Pledges, Walter McCall.

Even though the chapter is relatively small, the year promises to be a very prosperous one. To uphold its cardinal principles of scholarship, perseverance, uplift, brotherhood—and to instill in all Savannah State College students the need of brotherhood are the chapter's aims. We must remember "Men are judged by their fruit."

Les Modes

Mercedes Mitchell—'54
"The body is the shell of the soul, and the dress the husk of that shell; but the husk often tells what the kernel is."

To dress well and appropriately denotes that one is not only educationally efficient but culturally secure. There is an appeal in attire for any and every occasion. School clothes should be simple, conservative, yet fashionable. Set off last year's sweaters with a small but colorful scarf, a dainty collar or a simple yet attractive necklace. A well groomed young lady is never overdressed. This holds true for church, dinner, less, and formal. The simplest garment can be made the most attractive.

The young man's problem in dress is a simple one. A well-pressed dark suit is always in good taste excluding strictly formal. Remember . . . neatness and cleanliness are necessary always to give character and poise.

ZETA PHI BETA

Zeta Phi Beta Sorority on Savannah State College campus offers to each girl finer womanhood, sisterly love and scholarship. The program this year is much concerned with the development of personality and leadership among its on-Greek students as well as Greeks. Plans have been made for a very dynamic and successful year. The newly elected officers for the ensuing year are:

Elizabeth Baker, Basileus
Bertha Lanford, Anti-basileus
Mary Bacon, Grammatue
La Rue Gaskins, Ta' Mias-Grammatue

DELTA SIGMA THETA

Delta Nu Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority was the last Greek-Letter organization to enter the Savannah State College Family. Though it is the youngest Greek group, the members have initiated many projects that help to enrich our college life.

Socially, Delta Nu sponsors two parties. Of the group is the much talked about Raggedy Ann and Andy Ball which has proved fun for all at the past.

Educationally, the Deltas sponsor chapel programs and scholarship projects. Each year the Freshman woman, who has the highest cumulative average is honored at the May Week Chapel Program.

A careful examination of the 1952 plans for Delta Nu will prove that the members have planned a program that is in keeping with the public motto of the sorority—"Intelligence is the crown of wisdom."

Delta Nu Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority starts the 1953-54 year with the following roster:

Carolyn Gladden, President; Elizabeth Under, Vice-President; Lillie Mae Jackson, Recording Secretary; Ann Eamon, Corresponding Secretary; Evelyn James, Treasurer; Lolly Reeves, Historian; Edna Fartson, Chaplain; Lillie Linder, Keeper of Records; Doris Sanders, Dean of Pledges; Miss Junitta G. Sellers, Faculty Advisor.

Many New Faculty Added to Staff

With the beginning of the academic year '53-54, we found on our return trip to Savannah State College many new faculty members.

At Powell Laboratory School is Mrs. Virginia S. Bush, who received her B. S. degree from Spelman, Atlanta, Georgia, and M. A. degree from Howard University. Before coming to S. S. C., Mrs. Bush worked in Thompson, Georgia.

Dr. C. A. Brathwaite is the new chairman of the Fine Arts Department. He received the B. A. C. M. degree, and M. A. degrees from Howard University; his B. S., S. M. E. and E. D. D. from Columbia University. Dr. Brathwaite has worked at Fisk Universities. Mr. Pullin has worked at South Carolina State, Orangeburg, South Carolina.

Mr. Walter Lettwich, of Savannah, is no stranger to our college family. He received his B. S. degree from West Virginia State, M. A. degree from New

The English language, unlike many others, has one word to express the living animal and another its flesh prepared for food; as, ox and beef, calf and veal, deer and venison, sheep and mutton.

Ryles, Student Council Prexy, Plans Active

Officers of the Student Council were elected at the first official meeting on Friday, October 16, 1953. The officers of the Student Council for this school year are:

President, Timothy Ezais; president, Ezra Merritt; vice-president, George Johnson; secretary, William Weston; treasurer, Wallace Johnson; parliamentarian; Harold Collins; chaplain; Barbara Brunson, reporter. Other members of the Student Council were appointed to work on the Homecoming Pledg Committee. The advisors are: Mrs. L. M. Owens and Mr. Nelson Freeman.

We plan to work hard and carry out the official duties of the Student Council. This, of course, means close cooperation among the members and the full support of the administration, faculty and the student body.

The duties of the Student Council are:

1. To help promote Homecoming activities.
2. To disburse funds raised by and allocated to the body.
3. To present questions affecting the welfare of the students to the college administration for consideration.

Barbara Brunson, Reporter

4. To create any new office which it deems necessary to perform its function provided such offices are first approved by the administration, faculty and by a majority of the Student Council.

5. To cooperate with the faculty and administration in the regulation and promotion of student activities.

6. To promote college spirit.

7. To stimulate intelligent thinking on college problems and to serve as an agency for the crystallization and expression of student thought.

This year we plan big Homecoming festivities. We feel sure that the entire student body will do everything possible to help us make this Homecoming one of the best. This means cooperation and good college spirit. The date set for Homecoming is November 14, 1953.

Elizabeth City Wins 42-0

By Jehnnte P. Jones

Elizabeth City Teachers College, scoring almost at will rolled over the Savannah State College Tigers to the tune of 42-0 on the Tigers' home grounds to open the 1953 gridiron season for the locals. Ed James Greer of the Pirates blocked a punt to set up the first ECT touchdown. The second touchdown was scored when Paul Overton of the Pirates intercepted a Savannah State pass and two plays later crossed the stripes.

Touchdown numbers four and five were scored in the third quarter and numbers six and seven were made in the last quarter. Seeing action in their first collegiate game for Savannah State were Richard Hill, Charles Johnson, Will Johnson, Melvin Jones, Byron Mitchell, Frank Beauford, Robert Butler, Joseph Cox, George Darden, Louis Ford, Solomon Green, James Neal, Clinton Smith, Albert Scratches, Horace Stephenson, Harry Ward, James Williams, and James Willis.

Veterans returning for the 1953 grid campaign are Captain William Weatherston, Earl Terry, James Ash, Charlie Cameron, and L. J. McDaniel. Deaf Castain and Tommy Turner and Ivory Jefferson, Korean veterans, have returned to strengthen the SSC gridiron squad for this year.

Book Week Nov. 15-21

If you're not wearing a "cat" cap this year, you'll remember the above characters from "The Old Book Shoppe" presented by Powell Laboratory School during our celebration of Book Week last year.

The narrator was Mrs. D. G. Seabrook. Music was under the direction of Mrs. D. C. Hamilton. The director was Mrs. E. B. Dobson assisted by Mrs. E. Marks, Mrs. L. Wilcox, Mr. W. Mercer, and Mrs. M. M. Avery (Costumes).

The college students and faculty celebrated the week. 400 Book reviews and displays are linked on the theme: Reading is Fun.

Last year's book week theme was so well received that the Children's Book Council this year repeated the slogan, Reading is Fun, to pinpoint the world's celebration of the power of the printed page—November 15-21.

MAN'S BEST FRIEND

Toddler is Rescued

In a small town in Florida, a twenty-two-month-old, blue-eyed, blonde-haired girl wandered off and fell into some deep water.

Fortunately, her next-door neighbor, a purebred German Shepherd, saw his friend distress, dashed in and pulled the little girl back to the water's edge.

The only damage was a torn dress.

Hit and Run

Savannah State College combines family living and academic training.

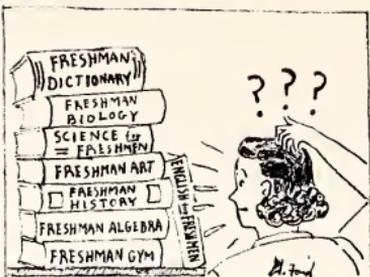

On the campus there are many Jugs—some are pedigreed and some are mongrels, but all are fed and loved.

On October 12, 1953, a speeding motorist hit one of our prized pets, Skippy, the affable English Shepherd.

Luckily Skippy escaped with a few cuts and bruises. Be careful motorists. Remember—"Man's Best Friend is His Dog."

The Other Fellow

The other fellow! Right or wrong, he is your mental roommate. Bright or dumb, he lives in your street. Hale or ill, he may affect or infect you. Tactful or articulate, you may learn from him. You have to live with the other fellow, and sadly enough, the other fellow has to live with you—make yourself worth living with, pleasantly, constructively, healthily, worthily.

...What am I suppose to do with all of these??...
