PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Over 300 years ago, Sir Francis Bacon, Scientist-Philosopher, said, "Knowledge is power." Today, as you go from the truth of this statement is readily apparent. In an age of rockets, satellites, jets, space ships, and "Explorers," the only key which will unlock the door to power is knowledge. One may, by aggressiveness, good contacts, or by sheer luck, find himself in the threshold to power, but only steady study will open the door; only "know-how" will provide the tools which will enable one to obtain and maintain power.

During your years of preparation at Savannah State College you are in the process of obtaining knowledge. As you go from class to class, from activity to activity, from challenge to challenge, you are building a background of experiences which will equip you with the skills needed for progressive living in the world of today and tomorrow. When your college days are over, your graduation will be a commencement for you will be forced to stand alone. When you stand alone and face the world, only knowledge will give you power, and only through power can you control your destiny.

To those of you who will leave us this year by graduation, we say to you, "Good Luck and Best Wishes" for the future. As you go forth, may you keep in mind that the world will always see in you, Savannah State College. Your success will be our success and your failure will be our failure. We hope that you will always stay in touch with your Alma Mater. Our fervent prayer is that God will bless you in all of your laudable undertakings.

HOWARD JORDAN, JR., President

THE RISING INCOMPETENCE

By Charles Smalls

Since America is respected as the leading spokesman of democracy in the world, it is debated whether or not America is actually "a government of the people, by the people, and for the people"—a free government, so to speak. The fact that America has been more outspoken and active in trying to develop this theory of democracy than other countries does not necessarily mean that it is really free, and that one should not be concerned about his divine and constitutional rights and his general well-being, because all these are safe-guarded according to the teachings of the American government. For one to take on an attitude like this is not only perplexing, but it is also illusive! One needs only to know a little history and be well-informed about the existing situations in America today, in order to know that there is a rising incompetence in the American government.

The incompetence lies in the fact that America's theory of democracy is quite contrary to that which is practiced. From many angles these teachings show a lax attitude on the part of the government to be concerned about who does what and why and how it is done. There is no better way to illustrate this incompetence than in the present leadership of Wallace of Alabama, who has been labeled "a moral evil"; Johnson of Mississippi and the formidable managing of Russell, Talmadge, Stennis, Eastland, Thurmond, Johnson and other members of the southern bloc concerning the civil rights bill in the U. S. Senate. It is clear that these people and people like them are the ones responsible for the rising incompetence. As long as these hypothetical people have a hand in shaping and molding American principles and beliefs, full democracy can never exist as a reality on the American scene! Not only is democracy threatened, but may be very true that incompetent people may soon lead the U.S.A. in the position to become infiltrated and controlled by communism. The possibility exists that this type of infiltration is now taking place in the United States at the present time!

In spite of the respect that foreign countries have for America, a few of these countries are skeptical of America's so-called democratic facade. Perhaps it would seem odd for another country, especially an ally of the U. S., to test or to challenge the position of America regarding democracy, but it is quite obvious when we think of France raising the question: How can America be a spokesman for democracy, when the idea of segregation and second-class citizenship is painted in glowing colors in American communities?

It is not so very much a matter of attacking the governmental principles of this country and satirizing some of the controversial officials, but when negligence, incompetence, and vice are transformed into reality that is not good for our democratic system, effective methods and steps to do away with this type of cancer should be taken. There is no need for a war or a revolution, but action must be taken now!

A Dream, a Hope, An End

By Gwendolyn Buchanan

The happiest yet saddest of all college experiences is that last week of school when the seniors prepare for graduation. Looking behind a dear alma mater and acquaintances may sadden many seniors, but the reaching or the approaching of an end that has long been a dream or a hope can make the saddest of the seniors happy.

The time has come for seniors to bid adieu with Savannah State College. Half with regret and half with keen anticipation, the seniors will walk through the door for the last time at SSC. The year of 1964 will leave behind many memories of athletic victories, scholastic achievements and other achievements. Beside the victories and the achievements, the seniors have set goals that perhaps the lower classmen will strive to reach.

As their dreams come true and their ends are accomplished the senior class now prepare to relinquish their positions to the junior class. Although they bid farewell, memories of them will always linger behind at the institution that they were once a part of.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Miss Buchanan:

Congratulations on your excellent editorial, "Degraded Morals," which appeared in the last issue of The Tiger's Roar. I found this editorial well written and extremely thought-provoking.

I certainly want to commend you on the courageous stand which you took. We need more students like you, willing to speak out against the unbecoming behavior pattern that we find prevalent in our college communities today.

Because of your editorial, I think that this is the finest issue of The Tiger's Roar we have had during this academic year.

Keep up the good work! Best

Yours very truly,

Howard Jordan, Jr.

President

Congratulations,

Tiger's Roar

It is with utmost pride and humility that I wish to congratulate the Tiger's Roar Staff who have given of their substance, their talent and their toil to develop a good student newspaper.

The excellent work accomplished by the Tiger's Roar under the leadership of Miss Gwendolyn Buchanan, editor-in-chief, has brought a source of joy to the Savannah State College Family.

I am proud of your achievements and I am confident of the success that is sure to be yours in the years ahead.

All good wishes for future progress and achievements. May you grow from strength to strength.

PROGRESS IS BUT A CHALLENGE, WHAT IS EDUCATION?

By Marvin Chatsman

Many, many years ago it was solemnly declared by Plato that the purpose of education was "to give to the body and the soul all the pleasures of which they were capable as a sign of the training among us has come to be regarded too much as a means of improving one's material comforts. We have put too much emphasis on the "practical" in education. But will not a study of the beauty in the past, must toward the end of the times be a place in the modern world?" As President Elliot of Yale University, said, "It is undeniable that the American democracy has thus far failed to take proper account of the sense of beauty as a means of happiness and to provide for the training of that sense."

The purpose of education is to give to the body and the soul all the pleasures of which they were capable as a sign of the training among us has come to be regarded too much as a means of improving one's material comforts. We have put too much emphasis on the "practical" in education. But will not a study of the beauty in the past, must toward the end of the times be a place in the modern world?" As President Elliot of Yale University, said, "It is undeniable that the American democracy has thus far failed to take proper account of the sense of beauty as a means of happiness and to provide for the training of that sense."

We who are amateurs, we who are going to be teachers, lawyers, stenographers, doctors, salesmen, housewives, what shall we gain from the study of the arts in school? Well, no matter what your sphere of life may be, you will need the following qualifications, and these, participation in dramatic activity may give you

1. Posture—The ability to enter a room and to remain in it without feeling that your arms and legs are unnecessary fastened and that your clothes are wrong. This is a valuable asset in any walk of life.

2. Voice Training—Everyone realizes the value of pleasant, well-modulated voice

3. Spontaneity of Action—The production of a play does not depend upon any one person, but upon everyone concerned.

4. A Knowledge of Human Nature—There is no job where a knowledge of people is not of vital importance. The relation between employer and employee and between teacher and student, between parents and children depends on it, and one of the best ways to acquire it is by the study of character, motives, emotions, which is the foundation of all acting. To put yourself into Juliet's place, to think her thoughts, to find the meaning of the stage is to understand many Julietish qualities off stage.

Likewise, various other students at this college might give a detailed account of the value and necessity of teaching the correlated arts of music, dancing, language, and painting; but as each speaks the others, we will generalize and say that participation, a love and an understanding of the arts develops the individual's taste for better things in life.

To strive to go adventuring along unknown paths at Savannah State College, to seek to make real a dream at Savannah State College, to find the meaning of the stage, to put yourself into Juliet's place, these are the desires which will live in the heart of man forever. Ages ago, many men and women felt its urge and went forth pursuing a quality education, each to the institution of his ideal.

And today, all over the world and those in whom the vision dwells at this our Savannah State College, I suggest you go forth in like manner, giving to the quest the added joy of fellowship. "There may be difficulties to surmount to make you strong, but if you and I keep burning, glowing and bright, our souls' fire, our faith and hopes shall be undimmed."

An Open Letter to The Student Body

My Dear Fellow Students,

Thanks very much for your vote of confidence which was evident by your overwhelming support of me during our recent election. As President of the Savannah State College Student Council, I am most deeply indebted to you for your support. I will diligently to make next school year a successful and eventful one. In order to accomplish this, however, I will need your unwavering support, for any democratic government is as strong as the collective strength of all its citizens.

A Student Council is good for you, if it is good for all any of the things that you feel free to consult with me about any of the things that you feel are the needs of our college.

Remember that a strong government, a powerful motive, a definite purpose, and a strict discipline shall be our aim in 1964-65.

I trust that you will have a pleasant and safe summer vacation and I shall look forward to greeting you and working with you in the fall.

Jimmy Stephenson,
President of Student Council 1964-65.

GODFREY CAMBRIDGE IS HERE IN A HILARIOUS NEW ALBUM!

With wickedly pungent satire and wit, Cambridge hits the funny bone—and more! He dramatizes vital issues... he brilliantly uncovers "moments of truth" of the fads and foibles of our times... he comments, with disarming innocence, on the after-effects of the Negro revolt. Godfrey Cambridge is uproarious. Godfrey Cambridge is a name to remember. "Ready or Not, Here's Godfrey Cambridge" is an album to own.

Let's say for a minute, this is you.

Once you wear the gold bars of a second lieutenant in the United States Air Force, what's in store for you?

Well, you may fly an aircraft entrusted with a vital defense mission. Or you may lead a research team tackling problems on the frontier of knowledge. You'll be helping to run an organization that's essential to the safety of the free world.

Sounds like you'll be called on to shoulder a good deal of responsibility, doesn't it?

But when you come right down to it, that's what your college years have been preparing you for. You've got ability and a good education. Now's the time to put them to work!

You'll have every opportunity to prove your talents in the Air Force. By doing so, you can put yourself and your country ahead.

If you're not already enrolled in ROTC, you can earn your commission at Air Force Officer Training School—a three-month course that's open to both men and women college graduates. To apply, you must be within 210 days of graduation.

A WORD FROM THE EDITOR

This issue of the paper completes my year of work as Editor-in-Chief of the Tiger's Roar. Wonderful experiences will not let me forget this year.

Experiences that I probably never would have had if I had not served as Editor of the school paper. I must admit I learned from each experience.

My first experience was that of accepting a great responsibility. That responsibility was to publish an issue of the Tiger's Roar once a month, keeping a staff, plus keeping the readers informed, entertained and pleased.

I had a great experience attending the Foreign Affairs Conference in New York and Washington, where I had the opportunity to meet important diplomats, Secretary of State Dean Rusk and to see and hear the President of the United States speak at a White House reception. I had the opportunity to attend the Columbia Scholastic Press, at Columbia University in New York and the opportunity to serve as Student Director of the Institute at Savannah State College.

Civil Service Jobs Opened

The Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners, Department of Agriculture, Agricultural Marketing Service, Eastern Area Administrative Division, Hyattsville, Maryland, announced that application will be accepted until June 30, 1964, for positions as Agricultural Commodity Grader ( tobacco ) GS-5, and Clerk, year. The majority of the positions to be filled from this examination are field positions in the Agricultural Marketing Service, Department of Agriculture, in Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Maryland, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Virginia and West Virginia.

Applicants are not required to take a written test but will be rated on their experience and education.

Persons interested in this examination may file application Form 57 and Civil Service ABC with the Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners, Eastern Area Administrative Division, Agricultural Marketing Service, Department of Agriculture, Federal Center Building, Hyattsville, Maryland 20782.

Additional information and necessary forms may be obtained from The Executive Secretary at the address shown above, or (2) from any post office, except in regional headquarters where the forms may be obtained from the United States

Memories of these experiences shall always linger with me.

With any job, individuals may become depressed and I can truly say that I've been depressed trying to carry out the duties of an editor. Many times I've wanted to just resign, but I realize that I couldn't do the job. Thanks to the Tiger's Roar Staff who helped to steer me out of that depression.

Thank to Elmer Thomas, former editor 1962-63 of the Tiger's Roar, who has helped a great deal with the paper.

Thank to my advisors and others for their co-operation.

To the Editor of Tiger's Roar and staffs for the 1964-83 school term, I challenge you to publish a better paper than those published this year; I challenge you to attend all press conferences and to bring back a first place award from the 1964-83 school term. I challenge you to publish the Tiger's Roar 1984-85 one of the best publications ever.

Applications Being Taken for Fall at Teachers College

Santa Monica, California—Applications are currently being received for the Fall '64 semester: Sophia Teachers' College in Southern California, the only five year Montessori teachers' program in the world leading to a degree.

Aimed at developing an elite corps of skilled Montessori teachers, the College offers a course of study leading to the Bachelor of Science degree in Arts and Science. The College is headed by two of the late Dr. Maria Montessori's closest collaborators, Dr. Claude A. Claremont, formerly of the University of London, and Frances Claremont, both world renowned Montessori authorities.

Tuition for the first two years of the program is $300 per year, although a limited number of scholarships are available providing free tuition for the first two years, plus financial assistance for the amount of $50 per month during the first school year, and $100 per month during the second school year.

Upon successful completion of the pre-collegiate two year program, teaching candidates then enter a three year teaching-learning internship in one of the Sophia Montessori Schools in Southern California. During the internship, exceptional candidates may apply for a fellowship granting $9,000 during the third school year, $9,500 for the fourth year, and $10,000 for the fifth year.

Candidates who complete the entire five year program and receive their degrees are then eligible to apply for positions on the permanent staff of the Sophia Schools of Southern California, where the salary range extends from $10,500 to $17,000 per year.

The only college program of its kind in the world, the Sophia Teachers' College has been designed to provide—for the first time in America—an opportunity for students to be thoroughly trained in depth, on both theoretical and practical levels, in the complexities of the vast Montessori system. The course of study is given at the Sophia School in Santa Monica. The largest pure Montessori school in America today, the Sophia School has a capacity of approximately 300 children, ranging from 2 1/2 years old

Chemistry Department Directs Summer Training Program

Dr. Charles Pratt, Head, Department of Chemistry, announced the opening of the Summer Science Training Program. This program will endeavor to provide opportunities for high school students of outstanding ability in chemistry to spend eight weeks on the campus for advanced study in a college environment.

SSC Represented at Occupational Conference

Savannah State College was represented at the Occupational Conference, Texas Southern University of Houston, Texas, April 23-25, by Dr. Clyde W. Hall, Chairman of Division of Technical Sciences.

The theme of the conference was "Improving Negroes for Employment Yesterday, 1867-1962, Today, 1863-1965, Tomorrow, 1966-1995."

Dr. Hall was one of the representatives from seven state supported colleges attending the Houston meeting. The meeting brought together industrialists, educators, and students that were interested in the National Employment picture with special reference to Negroes.

The schools represented were Alabama A. & M. College, Arkansas A. & M. College, Delaware State College, Florida A. & M. University, Savannah State College, Kentucky State College, Southern University, Virginia State College, Georgia A. & T. College, North Carolina, Tennessee A. & T. State University, South Carolina State College, Prairie View College, Virginia State College, West Virginia State College, and Langston University.

"Peace Caravan" For Undergrads

Special to College and University Publications
PHILADELPHIA—A rare opportunity for undergraduate students to carry a segment of the counterculture to areas about world peace and social justice to "Crossroads, U.S.A." is offered by the Peace Caravan program of the American Friends Service Committee this summer. A "peace caravan" consists of an interracial group of four or five young men and women who will carry a segment of the counterculture over a six weeks period. Local committees provide a welcome for the caravanners, and also schedule meetings with local government officials, civic, and church groups.

The caravanners have an opportunity to discuss their ideas and concerns about such things as the Vietnam War, the Algerian War, the Cuban Revolution, the validity of nonviolence as a way of life, and achieving peaceful social change. They also have the chance to learn what others think and work on projects.

Five AFSC Peace Caravans are scheduled: Oregon; Southern California and Arizona; Ohio and Indiana; Michigan and New York. The only program expense to the caravanners is fare to Williams Bay, Wisconsin, on June 28, where the young people will meet and spend the night at the Midwest Summer Institute of the AFSC. At the conclusion of the caravan they are obligated to get back home on their own.

Peace Caravans are open to young persons with a minimum of one year college or an acceptance of the counterculture. The openings are limited by the schedule and transportation accommodations, speed in registering is imperative for those in-

The students will be able to study subject matter in modern chemistry which is not generally included in high school curricula. The students will follow a course that will include individual projects, and experiments emphasizing quantitative measurements. It is anticipated that with the utilization of modern instruments the experiments will be more interesting.

Standardized tests in chemistry, science and mathematics will be administered at the beginning and end of the laboratory program. The purpose of the tests will be two-fold: (1) to determine in what areas the students are weak, and (2) to measure their progress in the course.

The school day will be from 8:30 a.m.-12 noon, and from 2:00 p.m.-4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday. The morning hours will be devoted to lectures, problem sessions, film presentations, and lectures by guest speakers. The afternoon sessions will be devoted to chemistry and project laboratory and local field trips. The educational program will be supplemented by a balanced recreational program. The program's general objective was to afford more exposure to the student's knowledge of chemistry and science in general.

The high school students who have been accepted are Glorious J. M. Leatherwood, Route 1, Easton, Ga.; James Earl Frank, Gerald, 1904-B Brown Street, Conway, South Carolina; Sherrie Ruth Griffin, 2101½ Ogeechee Road, Savannah, Georgia; Walter Lee Collins, Box 2, Box 2, Collins, Georgia; Leroy Wright, Jr, 5 Flake Avenue, Savannah, Georgia; Nedra Millcent Huggins, 1528 Aungbon Drive, Savannah, Georgia; Stanley John McClinton, 2 Stanley Avenue, Savannah, Georgia; Jenefer Clark, Claxton, Georgia; Judith Jackson, Savannah State College, Savannah, Georgia; David Hicks, Route 3, Box E, Vidalia, Georgia; Henry Lee Strong, General Delivery, Winfield, Georgia; George Francis Wynette, 1107 West 10th, North Manchester, Indiana; Barbara Jean Bryant, 1923 West 59th Street, Savannah, Georgia; James Earl, Savannah, Georgia; West Victory Drive, Savannah, Georgia; Martha Lee Bryant, 3110 Arlington, Bessemer, Alabama; John Earl Lang, 308 West 42nd Street, Savannah, Georgia; Gerald Boyd Mathews, 1511 Mike, Tallahassee, Florida; Sheila Mozelle Clemmons, 2201 West Victory Drive, Savannah, Georgia; James Earl, Savannah, Georgia; Stated Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; Milenda Cooper, Route 2, Box 101, Watkinsville, Georgia; Jewell Ann, 1001 1/2 Highway 20, Savannah, Georgia; Alma Jacqueline Porter, 908 East 37th Street, Savannah, Georgia; Dennis Orson Brown, 255A Fox Court, Savannah, Georgia.

Dr. Williams Outlines Plans For Summer School

By Charles Small
 Dr. Elton K. Williams, Director of Summer School and Coordinator of General Education, announces that regular college courses for beginning freshmen, continuing students, and in-service teachers will begin on Monday and continue through August 14. The last day for filing application for the summer quarter was May 21.

A six-week session will be held from 8 through 11 July 17, which will consist of special courses for in-service teachers. These courses will be in the areas of Biology, Fine Arts, Home Economics, Education, Languages and Literature, Library Sciences, Technical Science and Modern Mathematics (Elementary and Secondary). Special courses will be offered in several workshops. Among the courses offered in these workshops are SSC 420 (Democracy vs. Communism), Ed 426 (Reading Workshop), and Science Ed 405 (Workshop for Teachers in Elementary and Secondary Schools).

A one-week session as planned will start on July 20 and last through August 14. Courses offered in this session are Hum 101 (English Communicative Skills), LSC 301 (School Library Administration and Organization) and IARE 325 (Advanced Drafting). Special workshops will be offered during this session also.

Dr. Williams indicates that several scholarships granted by the National Science Foundation will aid in several summer science training courses for secondary school students. The Southern Education Foundation has granted scholarships for research and developments in the Food Technology Workshop. A journalism workshop will be offered for high school newspaper and yearbook advisers which will start on July 21 and continue through July 31. Scholarships granted by the Newspaper Fund, Inc. will aid this workshop.

In addition to formal courses, a rich program of concerts, recitals, lectures, plays and educational tours is planned for the students who attend at SSC for the summer quarter.

Hershel Robinson

A Salute to a Great Athlete

By Reece Edwards

The Tiger's Roar salutes Hershel Robinson, a young man who was considered by many to be an outstanding athlete during his four years on the college football and track team. Hershel is a senior, majoring in Physical Education, from Atlanta, Georgia.

He is a graduate of South Fulton High School where he excelled in many sports. While a member of the all-city and all-state football teams in 1956 in Atlanta, he maintained the highest kicking average on the city team.

Hershel entered Savannah State College in September 1960 and became a member of the SSC Tigers playing end. During his years with the Tigers, his best game was in 1962 when he made the final touchdown to lead SSC to a 22-14 victory over Benedict College. During the 1963 football season he was selected as captain of the fighting Tigers.

In track, Hershel ran the 220 and 440 yard dash, 1 mile relay and the 2 mile relay. He helped lead his teammates to second place in the S.E.A.C. track championship.

He is a member of the S.N.E.A., Y.W.A., Men's Festival Committee, NAACP, President of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Wright Hall Dormitory Council, Dining Hall Staff, and serves as an assistant to Mrs. Geraldine Abernathy in Physical Education for girls.

Some of Hershel's primary ambitions are to become well informed in his area of concentration, write poetry, become a high school coach and after a few years of work, go to school to study medicine.

Creative Poetry

I Wonder

By Little M. Kyles

Can man perfect nature?
 I wonder.
 Will time ever stand still?
 I wonder.
 Is there any such thing as truth?
 I wonder.
 Is love a symbol of the beautiful?
 I wonder.
 Is character more important than knowledge today?
 I wonder.
 Shall I exist tomorrow?
 I wonder.
 Would there be any joy in the world if man had no need to wonder?
 I wonder.

 Again I take pleasure in presenting to you this wonderful column which is also a Regular Feature of Greeks and Greek Letter Organizations. Here I stand under the many trees, watching the members of Greekland come and go until the sun shines on a spring morning. What more can the heart and mind desire? It is the question each individual is asking himself around this time of the year.

Recently, Alpha Iota Chapter of Sigma Gamma Rho Initiated six wonderful young ladies into its Aurora's Club.

The newly formed Aurora's Club is composed of seven young ladies of various localities and backgrounds. These young ladies are Fanny G. Bell, president; Emma Hill, vice president; Iona Smith, secretary; Annetta Bastie, assistant secretary; Verlene F. Brown, reporter; Emma L. Stephens, parliamentary. Under the leadership of these capable officers the Aurora's of '64 hope to be the best club of Alpha Iota Chapter of Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority has ever had.

One member of the Aurora's Club had the honor of being a candidate for Miss Kappa Alpha Phi, Miss Verlene Patricia Brown.

Omega Psi Phi Fraternity Holds Post Mardi Gras

By Louis Frank Tompkins

Alpha Gamma Chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc., held its Post Mardi Gras April 25, 1964, in Wilcox Gymnasium.

Many festivities highlighted this gala and magnificent affair. Among these were: bingo, fire-eating, dancing, pinning the donkey's tail, catching the dollar, penny loss, card games, and the wheel of fortune.

The most breath-taking event of the evening was the crowning of "Miss Mardi Gras" by Freda Hanter, "Miss Omega 1963-64." Other runners-up in the contest were Paulette Silbert, first; Araby, second; and Lois Carson, third.

The students and friends added much zeal and zest to the affair by masquerading as different persons of different eras.

The brothers of Alpha Gamma Chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc., are very optimistic about the activities that will terminate the school year. Namely, the Quetz' Ball, Man of the Year Award, Awards Day, and Commencement.

The graduating brothers who are outstanding campus leaders will be missed greatly by the chapter. Such outstanding brothers are Leander Merritt, John Stovall, John Stovall, Harvey Bryant, William Bush, Christopher James, Willie Adkins and Horace Magwood.

Realizing that we have principles to uphold, we must not let their absence affect our greatest traditions. Let's M.A.S.T. Scholarship, Perseverance, and Uplift be our guide.

We are happy to announce that eleven men have expressed their desire to become members of Omega by being initiated into the Lambda Chi Club of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. They are McArthur Brown, Roy Thomas, James R. Smith, Catha Douglas, Henry May, Charles Emory, Vernon Edwards, Tony Wright, Jerry Manor, George Roberts, and Vernon Jennings.

We are also happy to welcome another brother, Benjamin F. Keison, who crossed the Burning Sands into the Sacred Shrine Omega, April 23, 1964.

The Men of Sigma

The brothers of the Gamma Zeta Chapter of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity elected Brother Roosevelt Harris, a senior majoring in Education, as their "Man of the Year." He is president of the Art Club, vice chairman of the Pan Hellenic Council, and a member of the S.N.E.A.

Brother Harris has given three years of distinguished service to his fraternity and has lived up to the high ideals of Brotherhood, Scholarship, and Service. He is one of the truly great men of Sigma. He has served for one year as secretary and for two years as Dean of Pledges. He is also a member of the Chapter Director of National Bigger and Better Business.

Brother Harris will be the first student to receive a Bachelor of Science Degree in Education from Savannah State College. The Gamma Zeta Chapter will also lose Brother Harold Fleming, a senior majoring in Mathematics, and Brother Leander Cannick, a senior majoring in Industrial Arts Education.

The brothers of the Gamma Zeta Chapter welcome the following nephews to their service to Sigma: George Brinson, Thomas Clark, Jeffrey James, Melvin Lester, Shep Stevens, and Arthur Terry.

through the eighth grade. The Sophia School will add a grade each year going through high school. The most complete Montessori environment possible has been provided at the Sophia School, not only for the benefit of the children enrolled but also for the teaching trainees who utilize these classrooms for observation and practice teaching.

In addition, adjoining the Sophia School is the Kennedy Child Study Center, founded on a grant from the Joseph P. Kennedy Foundation for the diagnosis, treatment and education of retarded, disturbed and brain-damaged children. The Sophia Schools and Montessori Teachers' College, in cooperation with the Kennedy Center, conduct a special Montessori class for these children in which the teaching trainees an unusual opportunity to observe, study and be trained in Montessori techniques as applied to the field of special education.

Applicants wishing further information about Montessori Teachers' College should write to: Sophia Schools and Montessori Teachers' College, 1315 Twelfth Street, Santa Monica, California.

Additionally, a Four-Day Institute will be held in Santa Monica on June 11-14, while Sophia's classes are still in session, providing another opportunity to observe Montessori at work. Details on the Institute also are available by writing the Sophia Schools.

Ask a Student

By Walker Durham

How are you going to spend your summer vacation?

Edward Stephens—I plan to work most of the summer to earn money for school next term. I think it is everyone's duty to help their parents, which I plan to do.

Lauryce Preston—This summer I am making plans for attending the World's Fair. While in New York I am planning to attend a music school for a total of six weeks to help me in my music career. If I am not fortunate enough to attend the World's Fair, I am going to help my parents by teaching kindergarten.

Jean Wright—I plan to go to New York, get a job with my sister as her secretary; have a few parties, attend the World's Fair, and return home to school.

Mildred Cummings—I plan to go to summer school for my summer vacation.

Leola S. Lawrence—I plan to go to Columbus, Ohio, and also plan to attend summer school.

Florence Mack—I plan to use the time I have for my summer vacation quite wisely—working, later visiting the World's Fair in New York.

R. Antonette Battiste—My summer vacation will be spent in New York on a summer job. I plan to attend the World's Fair in New York.

Alethea White—I plan to spend my summer vacation at Hilton Head, South Carolina. I plan to attend the World's Fair in New York.

Film Festival in the Audio-Visual Aid Center of the Library.

A Piano Recital by the students of Mrs. Alice Wright was presented on Thursday evening at 8 p.m. in Meldrum Auditorium.

The final event in celebration of National Music Week took place at the All-College Assembly in Wilcox Gymnasium on Friday morning at 12 p.m., with a concert by the William James High School Choral Society of Statesboro, Georgia, under the direction of Tharon Stevens.

All events were opened to the public without charge.
