Negro History Week Feb. 13

By George Johnson

The department of social sciences led the observance of Negro History Week on the campus of Savannah State College. The observance started Sunday, February 13, with services in Vesper. Mr. E. J. Josey was the main speaker. Other features of the week were a panel discussion in special assembly, featuring members of this department who gave reports on Negro Progress; a panel discussion in Faculty meeting, "Negro History: A Contribution to American Intercultural Life." This event on February 19 ended the celebration.

Mr. E. J. Josey, instructor of Social Science, spoke from the subject, "The Challenge of the Negro." The Negro has built and has no where to lay his head; he has sown and often another has reaped the fruits of his toil; he has ruled and not been weary; he has walked and not fainted on the way; this was the statement which prefaced Josey's speech.

He reminded the audience of the "Negro's patience, adaptability, loyalty and smiling humility which have given him survival of the fittest against all odds." The speaker outlined the great struggle which has been the Negro's in his attempt to gain his civil rights and liberties in America.

Students participating on the discussion in Assembly were the following Social Science majors: Misses Jewell Cutler and Muriel Hight; Robert Johnson, and Dennis Williams. These students gave a background of Negro progress in literature, music and politics.

Mr. W. J. Holloway served as coordinator of a panel discussion in faculty meeting. The theme of this panel was, "Negro History: A Contribution to American Intercultural Life." Members of the panel spoke on the following aspects of the theme: Music, Miss Evelyn V. Grant; Economic Life, Miss Althertha Boston; Education, Mr. M. S. Stokes; Literature, Mr. J. Randolph Fisher; and Social Science, Mr. W. E. Griffin. Art, Mr. Philip Hampton.

New Equipment In Home Ec. Department

By Ida M. Lee

New equipment and courses have been added to the Department of Home Economics for the winter quarter. The new equipment includes two Neelce sewing machines, two looms and tables for the weaving division. The new course being offered is The Child and the Family.

Local companies assist with the instruction of evening classes through demonstration representatives. Demonstrations have been given by the Savannah Gas Company, Savannah Light and Power Company, The Sherwin Williams Paint and Varnish Company, and Miss Helen Hinton WFOC.

The evening classes are for adults. They were set up in September to serve the Savannah public. The courses are free and are taught by the regular home economics staff.

as leader or consultant. From Monday through Thursday, the daily programs will consist of breakfast meditations with committee members, classroom meditations and discussions, seminars, personal conferences, all-college assemblies, house gatherings, book reviews, evaluation periods, and films. A retreat to Savannah Beach for sunrise service will be held on Thursday, at 5:30 a. m. Mrs. S. E. Bowen will speak for this service.

The work of several committees has gone into the planning of the program for this week. They are the Assembly Committee, the Better Week, Bibliography, Breakfast, Classroom Discussion, Display and Decoration, Evaluation, Faculty, Hospitality, House Gathering, Music, Personal Conferences, Public Relations, Retreat, Seminar, Social Education Program, Sunday School, and Worship Committees. In addition to the various committees, all of the campus organizations united their efforts to assist in the sponsoring of the Religious Emphasis Program.

Members of the general planning committee are James Dearing, Maiselna Armstrong, Gladys Brown, Barbara Brunson, Barbara Flipper, Andrew J. Hargrett, Madeline Harrison, Julia Hendrix, Farris Hudson, Eugene Isaac, Johnnie Johnson, Wilbur Lewis, Clarence Lofton, Gloria Moutrie, Carter Peak DeLoane, Perry Jesse Thompson, Dennis Williams and Prince Wynn.

President William K. Payne is honorary chairman; James Dearing, general chairman; Reverend Andrew J. Hargrett, College Minister; Barbara Brunson, secretary; and Rev. William James Simmons is the guest consultant.

JAMES E. DEARING, who is chairman of the Religious Emphasis Week Committee for 1955, is a native of Gainesville, Ga., and a sophomore, majoring in Business Administration at Savannah State College. Dearing is a member of many organizations on the campus, namely: the Business Club, the Tiger's Roar staff, the Men's Dormitory Council and Disciplinary Board, the Pan-Hellenic Council, Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, and he is assistant secretary of the Y.M.C.A.

God In a Changing Society" will be observed from Sunday, February 27, through Thursday, March 3, at Savannah State College.

Each morning chimes will be heard before the daily program begins. On Sunday the observance will include Sunday School, Morning Worship and Vesper, with the guest speaker, Rev. William J. Simmons of Nashville.

Festival To Be Held Mar. 9-11

By Alice Bevans

On Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, March 9-11, the Savannah High School Language Arts Festival will be held at Savannah State College. It will be sponsored by Savannah State College and the Savannah Morning News and Evening Press, directed by the Department of Languages and Literature.

The objectives of the festival are to develop greater language competency among high school students; to stimulate students' creative ability in language; and to improve language teaching through the free, co-operative exchange of ideas, information, and materials among high school teachers, consultants, and sponsors of the festival. The Language Arts Festival is planned for the benefit of in-service teachers as well as for pupils.

Any high school in the state may register its students and teachers in the festival. A school may enter participants in as many different activities as it wishes and all faculty personnel accompanying students to the festival are expected to participate in the seminars.

This year the Festival will include verse writing, creative prose writing, spelling, oratory, current events discussion, one-act stage plays, radio skills, poetic interpretation and choral reading. Seminars have been planned in dramatics, creative writing, and the teaching of English.

Seminars will be conducted by members of Savannah State College faculty and visiting consultants. Each faculty sponsor attending all of the seminars will be awarded a certificate. Each student and school entering the festival will receive a certificate of participation in which will be indicated the quality of performance as evaluated by the panel of judges.

Mrs. Louise Lautler Owens is chairman of the festival. She will be assisted by Miss Althea Morton, Mrs. Beulah Farmer, Mr. Walter Larkins, Mrs. Luetta Usher, Dr. Thomas Saunders, Mr. J. R. Fisher, and Miss Mary Herd.

Julius Caesar Presented

By Mary G. Bacon

Savannah State College presented as its first Lyceum program of the year, The Players Incorporated in "Julius Caesar," Thursday, February 18, in Mel-drim Auditorium.

The Ellsabeth play, written by William Shakespeare, was portrayed in a professional manner. The scenery and lighting added reality to this magnificent play.

Rev. Simmons To Speak

By Nettie A. Handy

Rev. William James Simmonds has been selected as speaker for Religious Emphasis Week at Savannah State College this year.

Rev. Simmonds has had wide experience in group work with young people in religious and social problems, as well as student counseling. He has held the following positions: Dean of Virginia Theological Seminary and College at Lynchburg, Va.; Moderator of the Presbytery of Southern Virginia, Moderator of Catawba Synod, and Chairman of the Roanoke Boy Scouts of America.

At present, Rev. Simmonds is professor of philosophy and education, dean of men, and University Minister at Tennessee State University in Nashville. In the Nashville community he is affiliated with the Committee for Educational T. V., which is fostered by Nashville Council of Churches.

Rev. Simmonds holds the bachelor of arts degree from Lincoln University, Pennsylvania; the bachelor of divinity degree from Union Theological Seminary, New York, and the master of arts degree from Columbia University in New York.

For the joint Religious Emphasis Week observance in Nashville, Rev. Simmonds is serving as general chairman for 1955.

Religious Emphasis Week

James Dearing, '57

Each year at Savannah State College the faculty and student body observe a few days of religious activities which we call "Religious Emphasis Week." This year as it grows closer, February 27-March 3, we are hoping that each student will be truly helped with the blessings of God.

However, we know of nothing at the present that exists on the face of the earth that a person could dare to seek without paying forth some effort to gain it. In our classroom or our academic studies the teacher may try ever so hard to teach his class to the best of his ability, but only those who make an effort to grasp what is being taught are benefited by this teaching.

If we have ever needed God before we surely do need Him now. We have this week each year to benefit ourselves. As we go into this week, you remember that you will benefit on the bases of what you put into these activities.

In critical times like these, many of the boys may be inducted into the armed services. So we should prepare for approaching this affair with open hearts and minds. On the basis of what you'll put into Religious Emphasis Week this year will determine the benefits you will receive.

Salute to "Enterpriser"

By Nestor Doyle

We are sure the students here will have the recent publication of the Enterpriser, which is a monthly publication by the Department of Business. The Enterpriser was organized in 1949, was discontinued in 1952, and it resumed publication and circulation this school year.

Carier Peck, editor-in-chief, is to be commended for his tireless effort in getting the Enterpriser back into circulation. The content and organization of the publication are excellent. It contains material of special interest to students of business administration, such as job opportunities in business and reference materials available for business work.

We, the members of the Tiger's Roar staff and student body salute Peck and his co-workers for such a fine publication and we wish them much success with the paper.

Advisers for the project are Miss A. E. Boston and Messrs. R. C. Lone, W. H. Bowers and W. C. Scott.

Think

Common sense is believed to be one of the most widely distributed of all human possessions. Almost everyone has an intelligence quotient sufficient to master all common problems. We can make adjustments to new situations and new environments with the greatest of ease.

It is not necessary that we find ourselves trying in vain to solve simple everyday problems. It is not true that serious mistakes cannot be prevented. We don't have to plan and discover that none of them can be carried out.

When challenging situations arise, we can master them surprisingly well by simply supplying a little common sense. To apply common sense is to think.

When we think we never plunge blindly into anything. Before we act, we first gather, study and analyze the facts of the situation; secondly, we draw a conclusion which is based on truth and the constituents of the facts; thirdly, we make plans and proceed to put them into action.

When we think we do not find ourselves guilty of having committed acts that could jeopardize our progress, lower our morale, or ruin our lives. When we think we never have been happy because of the possibility of leading to disaster.

Life has something to offer you. Disappointment, sorrow, and failure need not be yours when love, prosperity, happiness, contentment, and success can be shared equally as well. To become the possessor of the assets of life isn't a difficult task. To make your life worth while is simple—just live, and as you live, think.

National News
President Eisenhower's stand on the reduction of the army has drawn much criticism. With the present tension the question the lawmakers have questioned the chief executive's intelligence on the matter of reducing the army when the threat of war prevailed.

International News
The announcement by President Eisenhower that the United States will protect Formosa if these islands are attacked by Communist China has established somewhat stable American foreign policy in Asia. This reporter believes that the United States is saying that prior to this time our Asian foreign policy toward Asia was of a static nature.

The stand that the United States has taken to defend Formosa may be in the future regarded as a key block in stopping the spread of International Communism, but will do little or nothing toward the recognition of Red China as the government of the majority of Chinese people. It is the belief of this reporter that it is impossible for General Chiang to conquer the Reds without risking a third world war.

How long the United States will be able to keep Communist China out of the United Nations is a question of time. However, inasmuch as the admission of Communist China to the United Nations will be of no advantage to the Western democracies, it would release I believe some of the tension in the Far East at the present time.

The fall of Mendes-France's government marks the twenty-second time that the French government has dissolved since the end of World War II. The cause this time was Premier Mendes-France's African policy. However, the government of Mendes-France nearly folded when the French voted on the much-disputed Western Germany rearmament. The fall of Mendes-France affected Western Germany's ratification of the Paris agreement.

The resignation of George Malenkov as Premier of the U. S. S. R. has caused the West to believe that the Soviets ulterior objective is war. Upon Malenkov's resignation he announced all of his policy stating that he failed to fulfill the wishes of the people. The speech of Mikolai Khrushchev has caused many to believe, as when Dwight Eisenhower was elected president of the United States, that the selection of a person with solely military experience increases the threat of war. However, I do believe that the change within the Kremlin does mean that they intend to wage stiffer foreign policy toward the West. But as far as the threat of war, I don't believe that they are quite ready for it.

The merging of the American Federation of Labor and the Congress of Industrial Organization has made history. This union together of these two outstanding and powerful labor organizations marks the first time in labor history that two such powerful organizations have combined their powers. The merging of these two organizations could mean, and most likely will mean, a strong voice for labor in national politics.

Message from the President

On Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, March 9-11, the State-wide High School Language Arts Festival will be held at Savannah State College. It will be sponsored by Savannah State College and the Savannah Morning News and Evening Press. Directed by the Languages Department of Languages and Literature.

This month the students and faculty of Savannah State College are observing Religious Emphasis Week. As usual, preparations are made for an extraordinary occasion. Unlike many occasions the preparations do not call for entirely new procedures. The observance is built upon beliefs and customs which have been present in the individuals for many years. Religious Emphasis Week provides opportunities for thinking again of the values of religion and the rededication of ourselves to religion that influences living. It is hoped that Religious Emphasis Week and what there is left after it has passed will provide college students with a growing religion.

To develop the other abilities of the student without the proper stimulation in the area of religion is to encourage maladjustment. The effects of education when properly balanced with religion that is enlightened produces effective citizens. All of the problems faced by our society today can be solved more effectively when religion and learning emanate from the same individual. Whatever worthy goal one may set for himself can be richer and more desirable if it is pursued under the influence of firm religious conviction. It will bring strength and understanding at all times. In crisis it will lift one above the animal level to grasp values which are more enduring and more satisfying.

KAPPAS STRIKE AT POLIO — Above are the members of Gamma Chi chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi who saw the need to answer the call for funds to help fight polio. These men made containers to solicit funds from faculty, staff, students, and visitors. The community appeal was answered wholeheartedly on February 3 by everyone, beginning at the chapel program in Meldrim Auditorium and ending at the close of the school day. A total of $15.83 was collected and turned over to the polio fund for the fight against infantile paralysis.

God Holds Us Dear Books Frequently Called For

3. Give me that book Physiology and Life by Ruth (Psychology and Life).
4. Give me that book on reserve for Education 416 or for mass communication.
5. I want that green education book that Mr. E. put on reserve.
6. I need some book for a book review on a non-fictional novel in the field of English.
7. I want some books on the Ears of Drift in elementary school (Aress of Drift).

You stop holding your hands like that when you foul; besides one hand is enough!

Organization Highlights

Kappa Alpha Psi

The brothers of Gamma Chi Chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi used their own initiative in taking part in the recent drive against polio. The brothers took advantage of Thursday, February 3, to collect $158.93 in pennies, nickels and dimes to contribute to this cause. No opportunity was neglected in the making of effort. Contributions from students, faculty and staff members, sightseers, and visitors were equally solicited. Not even everyone seemed proud of the move and contributed generously.

In the very near future we shall present to our friends and neighbors our Annual Variety Show. All brothers will combine their energies toward promoting this affair.

The Woman of Knowledge—Delta

"To perpetuate high scholastic ability and promote true womanhood," are our purposes. Ever cognizant of these, and striving to increase them, we Deltas have found the fulfillment of our goals inevitable.

We are very proud to have three Sorors as recent initiates into our honor societies. According to the minutes of Kappa Chi National Honor Scientific Society were Sorors: Mercedes Mitchell and Julia Hendrix and into Alpha Kappa Mu Honor Society was Soror Gloria Spaulding. We are grateful for having so many Sorors and Pyramids on the honor roll and on the list.

We welcome Mrs. Donella Graham Seabrook as our new advisor. We are sure that cooperation with her will make our group a better one. Mrs. Seabrook and Mrs. Junita Sellers Stone. Mrs. Stone's resignation became effective at the completion of last quarter when she became the Yachtie bride of Dr. Vernon W. Stone.

We extend best wishes to Soror Roberta Glover upon her recent marriage to Mr. E. Orell Webb. We hope both Sorors Stone and Webb will "live happily ever after."

Doing student teaching this quarter are Sorors Brown, Fortson, Hendrix and Saunders.

It was interesting to note that Leontyne Price, the star of Puccini's opera "Tosca," is a Soror. Soror Price's role was a precedent setter. It marked the first time a Negro artist has sung the top role of Puccini's work or opposite an all white cast.

Scholarship, leadership, character are qualities of all Delta women!

We hid advice from Delta Nu.

Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority

Scholarship: Soror Doris Singleton has honored Alpha Iota Chapter of Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority by earning membership into the honorary society, Alpha Kappa Mu. She is a native of Savannah, a junior majoring in elementary education, and she has been active in the dramatic club. Soror Singleton is president of the recently organized Spanish Club.

Practice Teachers: Sorors Mary Hagins and Bernice Murphy are doing student teaching at West Savannah and DeRenne Elementary Schools respectively. Evelyn Cooper is doing her practice work in Waycross, Ga.

Sympathy: All Sorors extend deepest sympathy to Soror Mary Hagin following the death of her grandmother.

Fiesta: We are looking forward to our Sports Fiesta on March 26, 1955 in Wilcox Gymnasium. Bernice A. Westley, Reporter.

Zeta Phi Beta Sorority

The members of Rho Beta Chapter of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority will observe Finer Womanhood Week with the Savannah campus chapter, Sunday morning, February 27. We will worship at the Second Baptist Church. The guest speaker will be Soror Nancy B. Woodbridge, professor of English, Hampton Institute. Soror Nancy Woodbridge is former Grand Basileus.

Rho Beta is formulating plans for the selection of the Zeta's Girl of the Year. Watch for details about this project.

Lillie R. Massey, Reporter.

The Apes Speak

The Brothers of Delta Eta Chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity presented their Annual Education for Citizenship Week Program in Chapel on February 17. Our theme for this program was "Intelligent Citizenship Inspires Freedom, Peace and Progress." Brother Dr. Thomas Saunders, chairman of the department of Languages and Literature, was the guest speaker. Panel discussions in keeping with the general theme were presented at Beach and Woodville High Schools.

Education for Citizenship is a national observance of Alpha Phi Alpha and it is designed to bring out pointers of good citizenship—trying to show and teach the members of our race the significance of education and citizenship in becoming the type of person that can successfully take their places in our society.

Y. W. C. A.

The Young Women's Christian Association of Savannah State College had as its guest this month the National Student Secretary of the Southern Region, Miss Doris V. Wilson. Miss Wilson met with the young women of the dormitory at an informal "Coke Party" Tuesday evening, February 1. An all-college women's meeting was held the following day at noon. We were given much information that was both vital and interesting. Since we are now affiliated with the national body, we realize that we have responsibilities to both our campus and the national Y. W. C. A. However, these responsibilities cannot be met without an active membership. We are therefore asking that as many young women as possible will become members of the "Y."

The W. C. A. celebrates its 100th birthday this year. Watch current magazines for articles concerning this celebration. The February issue of the Journal of Health and Physical Education, and the Women's Companion have very interesting articles about this world-wide occasion.

This We Believe

Homer Bryson, Jr.
The men of Omega, after a hilarious time at their annual Mardi Gras Ball, have settled down to some serious thinking. Oddly enough this was brought about by their little brothers.

It is expected that each pledge club leave something with the chapter. This year our group proposes to leave a project bordering on the intangible rather than on the intangible, in the hope that what good men do will live long after the evil is interred with their bones.

With this in mind the men of The Shield, along with their little brothers, have pledged themselves to bettering relations between campus and off-campus students and between the students in general. For this, we believe, is the only way to strengthen our student government and give us a student body with a rejuvenated school spirit.

Society Slants

By Elizabeth Jordan

What a grand time we had! The Omegas and their guests had the thrill of their lives as they danced to the music of "The Blazers" in Wilcox Gymnasium Saturday night, February 12. The affair was climaxed with much gaiety and laughter. What was the occasion . . . ? The Omega's Annual Mardi Gras Ball.

What in the heck is the Mambo . . . ? Well, we learned at the Scrollers Mambo Dance. The Scrollers of Gamma Chi Chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi fraternity gave a Mambo dance in Wilcox Gymnasium on the weekend of the eighth . . . (8th). Everybody was doing the Mambo. Music was furnished by Joe Bristol. A good time was had by all.

The Vibrotone Ensemble of Oakland College was presented in concert in Meltrim Auditorium on January 27. The program was certainly an inspiration to music lovers and was enjoyed by all who attended. The group is especially noted for their variety of musical selections.

We've been waiting . . . Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Demons, Sr. of Barnesville, Ga., proudly announce the engagement of their charming daughter, Shirley Juanita, to Mr. Thomas C. Johnson, Jr. of Savannah, Ga. Miss Demons is a senior here, majoring in elementary education. She is a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha sorority. Mr. John-

Foreign Language Class

"OGGA VO" "ECOLITEZ" HORSEN SIR"

By W. Larkins

For the last five weeks, the students of the foreign languages classes have been seen entering the broad portals of the Department of Languages and Literature in groups of four or five—remaining there for fifteen or twenty minutes and then hastily leaving with transfixed faces, muttering strange sayings such as "Habla usted español, senor?" or "Parlez-vous francais?" to each other. The mystery does not end, however, due to their little brothers.

It is expected that each pledge club leave something with the chapter. This year our group proposes to leave a project bordering on the intangible rather than on the intangible, in the hope that what good men do will live long after the evil is interred with their bones. With this in mind the men of The Shield, along with their little brothers, have pledged themselves to bettering relations between campus and off-campus students and between the students in general. For this, we believe, is the only way to strengthen our student government and give us a student body with a rejuvenated school spirit.

Interested in the learning of the languages?

What created this revolutionary attitude on the part of the students toward the learning of a foreign language? What dynamic and wonderfully mysterious force has surreptitiously wrought this astounding change? These are probably some of the questions which are pricking the minds of the casual observers of this phenomenal change. The answer is really simple. One realized that the voices of two overworked teachers were not enough to create, on the parts of the students, an earnest desire to advance further than a fluent command of "Habla usted español?" or "Parlez-vous francais?" What is this purpose in mind, a Listening Laboratory has been established.

The purpose of the laboratory is simple. It affords the student an opportunity to listen for a prolonged period to the voices of native speakers by means of earphone attachments. As many as eight students may listen at one time. The materials used for this purpose are of the best variety and are arranged so that the average student may derive the highest degree of benefit from them.

The laboratory technique of teaching does not, however, end there. For Earphone Amplets, Almost

Sports As I See It

The Savannah State Tigers pulled their biggest upset of the season when they defeated the highly favored Knoxville College 77-70 in an overtime game at Savannah.

The Tigers probably played their best defensive game of the year in holding the sharp-shoot-Cliffin "5" to 87 points when the first forty minutes of the game were over. Before coming to Savannah, Knoxville had averaged 105.5 points per game and had played some of the top Negro teams of the nation. With this record Savannah was expected to be another easy victory for the high scoring boys from Knoxville.

Coach Wright used only six players in this game and each one was at his best. All the regular stars hit into the double figures except big "Gill" Jackson, who did a magnificent job with rebounds on both ends. Last year's MVP, Tigers won over Knoxville—78-60.

The Tigers have thus far a 15-7 record and hold double victories over Claffin University, Albany State, Georgia College, Florida Normal and Fort Valley State. They have single wins over North Carolina College and Knoxville. They divided with Williams with Bethune-Cookman, Benedict, and Clark College and dropped decisions to Morris, South Carolina State and Allen University. The Savannah Tigers have lost only one conference game and have two more games to play before the S. E. A. C. Tournament in Savannah on February 25-26.

With this record, the Tigers will be a strong contender for an invitation to the National Tournament for their second year in succession.

S. S. C. Splits With Bethune

The Savannah State Tigers split a doubleheader at Savannah with Bethune Cookman. The Savannah girls lost their second game in 4 years by losing to Bethune 27-37. The Savannah State boys made it 7 games in a row in defeating Bethune 67-50.

Ruth Wright of Bethune was high scorer for the girls with 12 points. Clara Bryant was high for Savannah with 10 points. Bethune led 11-19 at half time.

The Savannah state boys' attack was led by Cecilio Williams with 20 points. Otis Brock had 19. Helmsley was high for Bethune with 12 points.

S. S. C. 54—Fla. Nin 79

Savannah State boys won their sixth straight conference game as they came from behind and won 79-71 in an overtime period over Florida Normal at St. Augustine, Fla.

Otis Brock led Savannah's attack with 25 points. Cecilio Williams had 22. Bradley Sims was the high scorer for Florida with 26 points. He was followed by Johnson with 16. Florida led at halftime, 41-31.

Savannah State girls lost to Florida 27-34 in the opening game. Hall was high scorer for Florida with 14 points. Rose Moore was high for Savannah with 7. Florida led at half time, 24-13.

S. S. C. Divided With Morris

Savannah State boys and girls divided a doubleheader with Morris College at Sumter, S. C. The Savannah girls won their game 55-24 while the boys were losing 71-65 to Morris.

Otis Brock and Cecilio of Savannah were high scorers of the game with 20 points each. Robert Lewis had 11.

Morris' "big guns" were R

Dorsey and J. Davis with 15 points each. Savannah trailed at halftime 33-28.

Owendolyn Keith led the Savannah girls with 27 points. Clara Bryant had 16. J. Bennett was high for Morris girls with 8 points. Savannah led 29-9 at halftime.

Tigers Down Claffin 87-78

Claffin trailed Savannah all through the game and lost to the sharpshooting Savannahians 87-78 at Orangeburg, S. C.

Noel Wright, Cecilio Williams and Otis Brock each hit 22 points for the Tigers. Arthur Butler took scoring honors of the game for Claffin with 26 points. Selema Mannings had 14 points. Claffin was behind 40-31 at halftime.

Religious Bookshelf

So many students have the idea that a religious book is one that they would prefer not reading because it is too difficult for them to understand. But this type of reading is not the only one available in the field of religion. Religious reading trends are toward books that deal with moral and spiritual problems in Christian living, convey an inspirational impulse toward personal self-adjustment or emphasize social or ethical matters. It is interesting to note the current socializing and secularizing of religious activities in an attempt to strengthen youth in moral faith and principles of justice and equality.

Books of general interest: Dark Glory, by Harry V. Richardson, attempts to discover the basic difficulties that have set present patterns of rural church life. This work brings out the institutional problems of the church, the social and economic conditions and the interracial atmosphere in which the church must exist and by which it must be limited.

Lights Along the Shore, by Fulton Oursler, is a compilation of this well known author's shorter works. These short articles are both factual and fictional. Among them are included some most unusual success stories.

Song Recital Given Jan. 27

Ida Lee

The Student Council was fortunate to secure the famous Vibratone Ensemble from Oakland College, Huntsville, Ala., for a recital of songs in January. The program consisted of some of the famous Negro spirituals: "Dry Bones," "Steal Away," classical selections: "Beautiful Dreamer," "To Be Alone," and folk songs "MacDonald's Farm," "Jim." These songs were sung in the Ensemble's own arrangement.

The famous Vibratone Ensemble, which was on a two week's tour, had appeared that week on five radio programs and two television networks.

LANGUAGE CLASS

any day, the professors Larkins and Morton can be seen trucking along toward their respective classes loaded down with the listening equipment in what seems to be an intense attitude on their part to make the laboratory technique an integral part of the foreign language program. Dejenos decir saludos a los buenos profesores de los idiomas extranjeros.

When you rise in the morning form a resolution to make the day a happy one to a fellow creature. —Sydney Smith

LOOK! LOOK! LOOK! LUCKY DROODLES!

OBVIOUSLY, THE TITLE of the above Droodle is: 47 insectology students enjoying better-tasting Luckies while studying 3 fireflies. All kinds of students are bugs about Luckies. Matter of fact, college smokers prefer Luckies to all other brands—and by a wide margin—according to the latest and greatest of all college surveys. Once again, the No. 1 reason: Luckies taste better. They taste better, first of all, because Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. Then, that tobacco is toasted to taste better. "It's Toasted"—the famous Lucky Strike process—tones up Luckies' light, good-tasting tobacco to make it taste even better . . . cleaner, fresher, smoother. So, enjoy the better-tasting cigarette . . . Lucky Strike.

Better taste Luckies...
