SAVANNAH STATE COLLEGE

October, 1960

Pictured above (left to right) are Mrs. Edith J. Ashe and Mrs. Edith J. McCray who are contestants for "Miss Columbus Classic." Both are '56 graduates of Savannah State and both are hard workers for their Alma Mater. One of them will be crowned during the pre-game show at 7:45 p.m.

Plans Complete For Columbus Classic

Savannah State College will clash with Fort Valley State College, Saturday night, October 8, 1960, at 8 p.m., in what is hoped to be the beginning of an Annual Columbus Football Classic.

The game, originally scheduled to be played in Savannah, was transferred to Columbus because of scholarship reasons (see Notes From the Editor's Desk on Page 2). After learning of the College's scholarship plight from Prince Jackson, Jr. and Wilton C. Scott, the Columbus Chapter decided unanimously to put on the game and pack the Columbus Municipal Stadium.

Making lightning plans under the leadership of Charles DuVaul, Columbus Chapter President, it was not long before the magnificent efforts began to take shape. Committees were formed and began to work immediately. At this writing, a "Miss Columbus Classic" contest was being sponsored, a souvenir program was being solicited, alumni in other cities were being contacted to assist in the distribution of tickets, motorcades from nearby cities were being planned, a big dance after the game, a great half-time show featuring the Army Sentry Dogs of Fort Benning, and weekly planning meetings were being held. Mr. DuVaul has requested every graduate in the state to converge on Columbus and make this effort a gigantic success. A parade will be held that afternoon at 1:00 p.m. and if anyone should get to Columbus on Friday, October 7, Vernon Mitchell has rented Club 837 to entertain that night. Let all of us meet in Columbus to back this effort.

Other officers of the chapter are: Vice-president, Mrs. Eddy M. Blair; Secretary, Mrs. Edith J. McCray; Treasurer, Edward Robinson; Chaplain, Milton J. Allen. Edward Robinson is chairman of the Steering Committee; Charles Thompson is chairman of the Souvenir Booklet; Vernon Mitchell is chairman of Housing and Entertainment; Eddie Lindsey is publicity chairman; and J. H. Smith is Parade Marshal.

Army Sentry Dogs to Do Half-Time Show

Because of the cooperation of Fort Benning, the crowd at the Columbus Classic will be treated to a special half-time show by the Army Sentry Dogs.

Notes From the Editor's Desk

Several alumni have asked, "Why was the Fort Valley State-Savannah State College Football Game transferred from Savannah to Columbus? I will try to answer this question by giving some information most alumni do not know but should know.

In 1953, after having the most disastrous football season (total score, 452-6), the alumni of the College met with Dr. Payne and promised to give more assistance to the College so that our football team would never have another season like 1953. As a result, the Alumni Scholarship Fund was born. We promised to raise $10,000 but were only able to get $2,400. Although we fell short, this $2,400 was $2,300 more than the alumni had given the year before. When I returned to the College as a faculty member and Alumni Secretary in 1955, the Alumni Scholarship Fund produced less than $500 that year. It was that year we began to request businesses and industries to contribute to the Alumni Scholarship Fund. In 1956, they gave $2,150 of the $3,300 we gave to the College. In 1958, they gave $2,500 of the $3,600 we gave to the College, and last year they gave $3,500 of the $4,600 we gave to the College.

As of this writing, we have received less than $1,500 from businesses and industries this year. We have also received less than $600 from our alumni. The reasons for this sudden collapse of aid from businesses and industries can not be explained in this newsletter but should be obvious to the reader if he is abreast of national events. However, it should serve to tell most of us to wake up and shoulder our responsibilities as graduates of Savannah State College. Although apathy on our part is not the biggest reason for businesses and industries deserting us, it must be looked upon with great concern. Would you continue to help a poor mother whose rich sons and daughters refused to help? Don't you think the above figures should have been reversed? Do you think the above figures justify the existence of at least 7,000 employed alumni? Do you think that the meager amount of scholarship aid we have been contributing to the College is adequate?

There are many graduates of our College who have never given a dime to her upbuilding yet have used the name of the College to reach the top. Somewhere, there are over 6,000 of these sons and daughters. Yes, there are really less than 1,000 graduates who work to push the College.

The answer to the question then is, the game has been changed from Savannah to Columbus because of vastly inadequate scholarship funds. It has been changed because most of Savannah State Alumni have not grown to the point where they are willing to support their alma mater. It has been changed because the College must maintain a strong scholarship program in order to attract top notch students. It has been changed because $5 per year is too much money for Savannah State grads to give to help other Negro boys and girls receive a College Education. But most of all, it has been changed because we have not GROWN UP as alumni. I hope the question has been answered adequately.

The biggest reason for the desertion of the Alumni Scholarship Fund by businesses and industries will be explained at the Homecoming meeting.

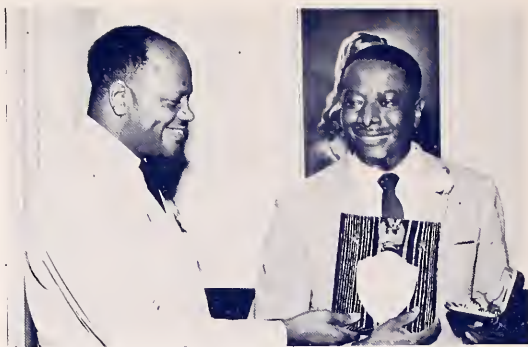

Tigers Open Against Edward Waters of Jacksonville, Florida

With highly talented freshmen who have been called by Robert "Nancy Hanks" Slocum, the "cream of the crop" and the veteran players from last year, the Savannah State Tigers are rated to be 7 to 5 over a strong Edward Waters College team that is virtually unchanged from last year. The Tigers will roam in Edward Waters territory, Jacksonville, Florida, October 1, 1960.

Showing improvement each minute over last year's stellar performances are Captain Elijah McGraw, a powerful, fleet, sure-handed end who has been called the best since Curtis P. Harris, and John Strong, one of the leading ground gainers in the Southeastern Atlantic Conference last season.

The forward wall has enough beef to stop a freight train. Averaging better than 200 pounds, the line will be led by tackles Floyd Walker, 270 pounds; Wendell McIntosh, 206 pounds; Eddie Bell, 180 pounds; Charles Gaines, 191 pounds; guards, James Bowens, 195 pounds; Duke Cummings, 205 pounds; Eddie Tolbert, 190 pounds; and centers, Calvin Roberts, 178 pounds, and Benjamin Spann, 202 pounds. The halfbacks average 180 pounds and the fullbacks average 190 pounds. All of this spells TROUBLE for the Tigers' foes this season.

An overflowing crowd packed Beach High School Auditorium recently to witness the "stepping down" of Wilton C. Scott as Supervisor of the Beach High Adult Center. Scott has been succeeded by Robert Young, a 1938 graduate of Savannah State who was also named principal of the Negro Vocational School in Savannah. Under the leadership of the Center grew from a few to one of the largest Negro Centers in the South. Under the leadership of the dynamic Robert Young, the continued growth of the Center is a certainty. In the picture above, Young congratulates Scott.

Mr. Young holds a B.S. degree from Savannah State College and an M.S. degree from Cornell University.

He entered the Chatham County school system in 1940 as an Agricultural teacher at Haven Home School and remained in that position until 1959, when he went to Alfred E. Beach High School, assuming duties in the same capacity.

His early administrative offices included, Principal of the Pin Point Adult Night School, Principal-Teacher of the Arlington Vocational High School, Arlington, Georgia, and Supervisor of the O.S.Y.A. National Defense Program.

Other affiliations and awards include: the Founding of the Montgomery Community House. The project was dedicated in 1949. Awarded the Delaware Trophy by Savannah State College Alumni Association in 1949 for outstanding achievement; Elected President of Theta Chapter, Phi Delta Kappa Fraternity, Cornell University in 1952; is listed in Who's Who in American Education; Served as Chairman of Advisory and Planning Council to Superintendent of Chatham County Public Schools; President of Chatham County Teacher's Association, 1956-58; and in 1958 was chosen Chatham County Teacher of the Year and Region 11 Teacher of the Year. Mr. Young is a member of the Montgomery Baptist Church and Chairman of the Trustee Board.

Savannah State Alumni In Sandersville to Organize Chapter

Reverend Gilbert Dean and Eddie Scott assured Prince Jackson, Jr., college alumni secretary, this summer of an early fall organization in Sandersville, Georgia.

The two grads stated that there were more than fifty grads in the area and the need for a chapter was great. All alumni in the Sandersville area are being urged to watch for the call to organize which probably will be sent out in the next few weeks. Such a Chapter in Sandersville should be highly productive since many of Savannah State's most outstanding graduates are residing in the area.
