The Major Richard R. Wright Award of Excellence

Savannah State College, on March 25, 1972, established The Major Richard R. Wright Award of Excellence whereby alumni, members of the community, and corporations are chosen by a jury appointed by the President to be honored for outstanding repute as leaders in their respective fields of endeavor. Nominations for the honor are made by the alumni, the student body, and the faculty. The Award commemorates Major Richard R. Wright, the first President of Savannah State College.

To qualify to receive this Award, an alumnus, a member of the community, or a corporation must have worked constructively to change the pulse of the community for the better. The parties cited must have used innovative approaches in opening new avenues of awareness for the individual and society as a whole. The honorees must have utilized scholarly means which address the needs of the public and attempt to improve the human condition. Recipients of this Award must be eclectic thinkers who have proven themselves able to transcend the false pride that tempers self-aggrandizement.

The Major Richard R. Wright Award of Excellence will not be given injudiciously. Those parties that receive the Award will be noted for their expertise in social, educational, and civic arenas.

The College will recognize recipients of the Major Richard R. Wright Award of Excellence at Commencement Convocations.

Since the Board of Regents does not allow any of the state colleges to confer honorary degrees, this Award is given by Savannah State College in lieu of them.

SAMUEL LEE GRAVELY is that rara avis, a native of Richmond, Virginia, who has achieved notable success in the United States Navy. Graduated from the Midshipmen School, Columbia University, New York City, he has advanced in rank from a Commissioned Ensign in the United States Naval Reserve in December 1944, to his present position of Rear Admiral, having transferred to the United States Navy on August 16, 1955.

Long recognized as an outstanding leader in the arena of naval operations and logistics, Rear Admiral Gravelly has been awarded the Legion of Merit, the Bronze Star Medal, the Meritorious Service Medal, the Joint Services Commendation Medal, and the Navy Commendation Medal embellished with both the Bronze Star and the Combat "V." He is also authorized to wear the World War II Victory Medal and the Naval Reserve, American Campaign, the National Defense, the Korean Service, the United Nations, the Armed Forces Expeditionary, the Vietnam Service, the China Service, the Vietnamese Campaign, and the Antarctica Service Medals. Rear Admiral Gravelly has also been awarded the coveted Korean Presidential Unit Citation.

Mr. President, I present to you the Honorable Samuel Lee Gravelly, Rear Admiral, the United States Navy, who is to receive the Major Richard R. Wright Award of Excellence.

President Jackson

SAMUEL LEE GRAVELY, in recognition of your distinguished record as one of this country's finest naval scientists and laureate practitioners of all the truths which men hold inviolable, I now award you the Richard R. Wright Award of Excellence.

Assistant Professor Elmore

JULIAN C. HALLIGAN is that human being extraordinaire who is ever unselfishly working for the good of mankind. His credentials attest to his having proffered continuous service to the people of Savannah, Chatham County, and the State of Georgia in both educational and religious spheres. Mr. Halligan is a graduate of Savannah's Benedictine Military Academy (Class of 1929) and is one of its most proud and staunch benefactors. He is a Past Grand Knight of the Knights of Columbus and a past president in three arenas of interest: the USO, the Gridiron Club of Savannah, and the Georgia School Boards Association. Mr. Halligan has been a member of the Savannah-Chatham County Board of Education since 1960 and has served as Vice-President and President of the Board of Education and chaired all of its major committees. He has served as Commissioner of Education for the State of Georgia in 1967, and on January 1, 1971, he became President of the first elective Savannah-Chatham County School Board.

Ever a champion of the people, Mr. Halligan is a recipient of the School Bell Award for outstanding service to the school children of Chatham County. He also currently serves as a member of the Georgia School Board's Legislative Committee, in addition to his serving as a member of the Board of Directors of the Diocesan Council of Catholic Men of Savannah and as President of the Hibernian Council of Savannah.

Mr. President, I present to you the Honorable Julian C. Halligan, President of the Savannah-Chatham County Board of Education, and a man who has pondered the Socratic axiom, "Know thyself . . .," to receive the Major Richard R. Wright Award of Excellence.

President Jackson

JULIAN C. HALLIGAN, in recognition of your dynamic and pivotal leadership, outstanding service to the people of Savannah and Chatham County, and gallant efforts undertaken to improve the productivity of citizens from all walks of life, I am honored to award you the Major Richard R. Wright Award of Excellence.

Assistant Professor Elmore

ESTHER F. GARRISON, a native of Irwin County, Ocilla, Georgia, was educated in the public schools of Ocilla and at Savannah State College. She is a rare and catholic spirit whose inventive and inquisitive mind has led her into all corners and byways of the socio-civic arena. Since 1942, Mrs. Garrison has been a dynamic force for good in the Savannah community. She was one of the first Chatham Countians to sign the petition requesting that the Board of Public Education for the City of Savannah and the County of Chatham integrate the schools. Always socially conscious, Mrs. Garrison has served as Secretary of the Savannah Branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People for twenty years, having voluntarily accepted that position in 1954, immediately after the Supreme Court handed down its historic decision in the Brown versus Board of Education Case. She is a ten-year veteran of the Savannah-Chatham County Board of Education of which she is currently both the Vice-President pro tempore and the senior member.

Candid, productive, and intellectually tenacious, Mrs. Garrison has been cited by the Adult Education Branch of Chatham County, the Savannah State Chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, the Prince Hall Masons, the Order of Eastern Star, and the Mutual Benevolent Society of Savannah.

Mr. President, it is my great pleasure to present a champion of the Lumpenproletariat, Mrs. Esther F. Garrison, Vice-President pro tempore of the Savannah-Chatham County Board of Education and Secretary to both the Savannah Branch Chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People and to the President of the International Longshoremen's Association, Local 1414, to receive the Major Richard R. Wright Award of Excellence.

President Jackson

ESTHER F. GARRISON, in recognition of your championing the rights of the common man for more than thirty-two years, it is with heartfelt pride that I present you the Major Richard R. Wright Award of Excellence.

Assistant Professor Elmore

HOWARD JORDAN, JR., a native of Beaufort, South Carolina, is a beloved and respected educator and religious leader, who advanced in rank from President of Savannah State College in 1971 to his current position as Vice Chancellor for Services, Regents of the University System of Georgia, Atlanta, Georgia.

Ever since his undergraduate days at both Georgia State College (now Savannah State College) and South Carolina State College, Howard Jordan, Jr., an architect of the novo ordo, has demonstrated a rare combination of talents: excellent perception as a scholar, keen perception as an intellectual connoisseur, clear vision of the public's educational needs, and a flair for effective administration. Dr. Jordan received the accoutrements which allowed him to deport himself judiciously at South Carolina State College, which awarded him the baccalaureate degree in history and political science, from Howard University, where he earned the master of arts degree, and at New York University, which conferred on him the Doctor of Education degree in educational psychology. While matriculating at New York University, Dr. Jordan was a student of the laureate psychologist, Dr. Charles E. Skinner.

Dr. Jordan is a prolific public speaker and a distinguished vestryman of the Episcopal Church. He holds memberships in Phi Delta Kappa, Kappa Delta Pi, and Alpha Kappa Mu Honor Societies and the American Psychological Association. Ever an active and dynamic personality, Dr. Jordan is a member of many outstanding committees, foremost of which are the Governor's Goals for Georgia Committee, the Governor's Commission to Study Prison Reform, the President's Advisory Committee on Supplementary Centers and Services, Title II, Elementary Education Act, and the Southern Regional Education Board's Commission on Equal Higher Education Opportunity.

Mr. President, I present to you a man who espouses divergent honorable causes basic to the hearts of men, the Honorable Howard Jordan, Jr., Immediate Past President of Savannah State College and Vice Chancellor for Services, Regents of the University System of Georgia, to receive the Major Richard R. Wright Award of Excellence.

President Jackson

HOWARD JORDAN, JR., your commitment to the dignity of man has enriched American education and elevated the temper of our milieu and I am happy to award you and welcome you to the ranks of those distinguished peers who have been presented the Major Richard R. Wright Award of Excellence.

We raise in prayerful reverence.*

*Guide us still from day to day,
Be Thou mindful lest we lose our way;
Help us know that life, short or long,
Means unceasing work for weak and strong.*

REFRAIN

*Where Savannah meets the sea,
Where grassy plains and palms abound,
Where the flow'rs are gems of loveliness,
There S.S.C. is found.
We adore each beauteous scene and hall,
Our all we pledge to Thee!
In our hearts we'll build a shrine for Thee.
We hail Thee, S.S.C.*

ACADEMIC COSTUMES

Modern academic dress has evolved from a type of apparel prescribed by English Medieval Universities to distinguish their schools from the lay person in dress at a time when everybody wore robes or gowns. When American colleges and universities desired to adopt some suitable system of academic apparel a half century ago it seemed best to agree on some definite system which all might follow. Accordingly, this attire has consisted of the cap, the gown, and the hood, the latter two now differing according to the degree the wearer has received.

The modern cap, in academic dress has the same design for all degrees; black and square-shaped with a tassel hanging from the center. However, the color of the tassel usually differentiates the field of study for which the degree was granted, the gold tassel being worn by doctors or by presidents of colleges and universities; but it may be added that the black tassel is correct for all degrees.

The gown, unlike the cap, differs appreciably in design according to the degree conferred on the wearer. The gown for the bachelor's degree has pointed sleeves. It is designed to be worn closed. The gown for the master's degree, worn open or closed has an oblong sleeve, open at the wrist, like the others. The sleeve base hangs down in the traditional manner. The rear part of its oblong shape is square cut and the front part has an arc cut away. The doctor's gown, worn open or closed, has long sleeves faced with velvet; three bars of velvet are midway the sleeves. The trimmings of the doctor's gown may be black or the color associated with the field of study.

The hood, while not an article of dress, is, however, the most distinctive feature of the academic attire. It is a black, crow-shaped badge or adornment with an oval opening and worn down the back. It enables one to quickly determine not only the degree held by the wearer but also the college or university from which he is graduated. The colors lining the hood and the size and shape of the hood make this distinction. The bachelor's and master's hoods are three feet and three and a half feet in length, respectively; the doctor's hood is four feet in length and is made with a wide panel. Hoods may be worn for only those degrees actually held by the wearers.

Members of the governing body of a college or university, and they only, whatever their degrees may be, are entitled to wear doctor's gowns (with black velvet), but their hoods may be only those of degrees actually held by the wearers or those especially prescribed for them by the institution.

In some colleges and universities, it is customary for the president, chancellor, or chief officer to wear a costume similar to that worn by the head of a foreign university.

The chief marshal may wear a specially designed costume approved by the institution.

For all academic purposes, including trimmings of doctor's gowns, edging of hoods, and tassels of caps, the color associated with different subjects as prescribed by the revised American Intercollegiate Code is as follows:

Agriculture	Maise
Arts, Letters, Humanities	White
Business	Drab
Economics	Copper
Education	Light Blue
Law	Purple
Library Science	Lemon
Music	Pink
Oratory—(Speech)	Silver Gray
Philosophy	Dark Blue
Physical Education	Sage Green
Science	Golden Yellow
Theology	Scarlet

At Savannah State College, the lining of the hood has an orange chevron on a blue background to represent school colors. A faculty member wears the color of his alma mater.
